Brenda Pauline McCray

August 27, 1942 - October 15, 2023

BRENDA PAULINE MCCRAY (MILLIGAN), daughter of the late Pauline and Edward Milligan was born on August 27, 1942, in Baltimore, Maryland. She was Baptized at Whitestone Baptist Church early in life. Brenda quietly passed away at home, surrounded by her husband Stanley and her sons Derrick and Brandon. Brenda was preceded in death by her sister, Sunny Jerry Johnson.

She attended Douglass High School and went on to continue her education at Cortez Peters Business School. Brenda worked for the City of Baltimore as a Loan Officer for 52 years. Brenda enjoyed sewing, eating crabs, baking cakes and cooking dinner for her family. She loved spending time with her children and grandchildren just talking and reminiscing. Brenda enjoyed shopping, going to flea markets, and the Pottery. She also enjoyed going on ski trips and to Atlantic City where she would stock up on that famous saltwater taffy. Brenda also loved watching the Baltimore Ravens play and wearing Ravens clothing. One of Brenda's greatest accomplishments was taking care of her husband, and sons and loving her grandchildren.

Brenda leaves to cherish her memory; husband, Stanley; two sons, Derrick Milligan and Brandon McCray; four grandchildren, Derrick Milligan Jr., Nikera Milligan. Harmoni Johnson, and Autumn McCray; two great-granddaughters, Kisstin Hunt, and Kaisyn Hayes. Brenda also leaves to cherish her memory: two brothers, Clayton Anderson (Twana) and Andre Anderson (Kim); six nieces; Sandi Johnson, Michelle Johnson, Tanya Prince, Star Anderson, Natasha Anderson and Neshera Anderson; and two nephews, Clayton Anderson and Damon Anderson; and a host of other family members.

We thank God for the gift of her life and the blessing of the time spent with her.
