Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Revelation 21:3-5 lovingly informs us of the time when there will be no more sickness, death, sorrow or pain. On top of that Acts 24:15 declares "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about this wonderful hope found in the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Hill##imported-end##

Please accept my sincere sympathy at this time. Despite this painful time, you can find comfort in God's Word. The Bible teaches that most people who have died will be resurrected. Jesus promised that "those in the memorial tombs will...come out."(John 5:28, 29) In harmony with God's original purpose, those resurrected as humans will have the opportunity to live on a cleansed earth. (Luke 23:43) This promised future includes perfect health and everlasting life for obedient humans. The Bible says: "The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it."-Psalm 37:29##imported-begin##A. Robinson##imported-end##
