Please accept my sympathy for your loss.During this time, may family and friends be comforted by the wonderful hope at Revelation 21:4: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more. Neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

My fondest memory of cousin Franscine is the day family members and friends attended a formal function and there she was--elegant, graceful, optimistic, bubbly, energetic and elated with all the fascinating glories that life has to offer. Unselfish in rendering guidance, support and love, she filled the air with a subtle laughter and magical moments no matter how big or small. She brought in a bundle of sunshine that shined generously through the room while having enough to share with everyone. She absolutely loved having a good time and that is what life is all about--cherishing every second of every beautiful day for the gift that it is. She carried the attitude that I am here today and tomorrow will come if it is meant to. You are the gift to this family--extraordinary you. Nothing, but love for you, my sister! Deliah Edwards

I know you don't know me, but I saw Ms. Tucker's obituary; I wanted to send you my condolences.
As humans, we grieve over the death of a loved one; that's normal, because we know Jesus gave way to tears (John 11:35) after the death of his close friend Lazarus. He demonstrated what resurrection will mean for mankind; in John 11:11, 14-44, "Jesus said to his disciples, 'Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from sleep.' Luke 23:43 provides us the hope for paradise here on earth, because Jesus stated, "Truly I tell you today, YOU will be with me in Paradise." Jesus statement meant that "All the earth will be transformed back into a paradise under the rule of Christ as King!
1 Thessalonians 4:13 Paul instructs us to not be ignorant concerning those who are sleep (in death); This hope Paul mentions is the hope for the restored Paradise on Earth, as Jehovah God had originally created for all of mankind to enjoy.

(Romans 15:4) For all the things that were written aforetime were written for our instruction, that through our endurance and through the comfort from the Scriptures we might have hope.

I am one of the international Bible Students in the area. I would like to send condolences to the family. There is a God of comfort and you can read your Bible so that he can help you during this time in your life. I hope these scriptures help comfort you.

(John 5:28-29) Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.
