Christine T. Brinson

June 10, 1942 - December 28, 2012

On Friday, December 28, 2012, CHRISTINE BRINSON departed this life to be with the Lord. She was comforted for the transition by her loving family. Her transition was very peaceful.

Christine T. Brinson was born in Baltimore, Maryland on June 10, 1942, to the late Albert Glascoe and Sarah Glascoe. Christine was introduced to Christ at a young age and was also raised in a spiritual environment. Christine is a graduate of Paul Laurence Dunbar High School in Baltimore, Maryland and also a graduate of the Mary Martha Washington School of Nursing in Washington, D.C. Christine worked for Howard University Hospital upon graduation for over twenty years and was loved by many patients and co-workers for her hard work and dedication.

Christine enjoyed a quiet, peaceful existence at home and enjoyed cooking for the family. She looked forward to her annual family gathering and enjoyed spending time with her family and friends emensely. She was a favorite of many nieces and nephews and grandchildren who confided in her, sought comfort and always knew she would be painfully honest. Christine was a diehard Dallas Cowboys fan and was especially boisterous during the annual Redskins vs. Dallas match up. Christine was a very kind, generous and forgiving person. She will be truly missed.

Christine leaves to cherish her loving memory: her husband, John Brinson; son, Brian Glascoe; daughter, Anna Marie Benjamin; sisters, Anita Carter, Juanita Parker and Marilyn Glascoe; grandchildren, Brian Benjamin, Celine Purnell, Chase Purnell and Denzel Benac; and a host of nieces, nephews, close relatives and friends.

Christine was preceded in death by: her mother and father, Sarah and Albert Glascoe; brother, Ronald Glascoe; sisters, Rene Glascoe and Bernadine Parrish respectfully.

I am so sorry for your lost. Losing a loved one is never easy. Jehovah God promises to do away with our suffering. In the bible at Revelation 21:4, it says "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." How comforting to know what Jehovah will do for us all in the future. I encourage you to read this scripture in your own copy of the bible. I hope this helps during your time of need.

Losing someone that was truly loved is difficult. The Bible comforts us at Ecclesiates 3:11. “Everything he has made pretty in its time. Even to time indefinite he has put in their hearts.”
