Lottie L. Tyler

May 1, 1917 - March 17, 2013

LOTTIE LOUISE TYLER was born on May 1, 1917 in Talbot County, on the Eastern Shore of Maryland to Charles and Amanda Cornish. She was the youngest of nine children and the only one of her siblings to reach adulthood. God truly had a plan for this special woman.

Her mom passed away when Lottie was only six years old and she then was raised by her loving father. Mom accepted Christ at an early age. She attended her family church in Oxford as a child and later Patterson/ Asbury A.M.E. Zion, Evergreen A.M.E. and First Abyssinia Baptist Church in Baltimore. She attended school in Talbot County, Maryland and later moved to live with family in Baltimore, Maryland where she attended Frederick Douglass High School. At an early age, she was employed as a crab picker, held various domestic jobs and worked at the Maryland Cup Corp.

Lottie met her “Knight in Shining Armor,” Charles Tyler; and they were married on March 31, 1939. Out of this union six children were born.

Lottie was truly and example of love and motherhood. Mom and Dad always had room to lend a helping hand, opening their hearts and home to whomever was in need. Mom was the best cook ever. She lived a life that truly exemplified the love, greatness and mercy of her Savior, Jesus Christ. You can track him all through her life’s story. He brought her all the way…

Her husband, Charles in 1981; her son, John in 1968; and her grandson, Mark Johnson Sr. in 2009 preceded her in death.

She leaves to carry on her legacy: her children, Charles “Tyrone”, Shirley Deal (Ralph), Mary Johnson (Robert Sr.), William (June), Cathy Bryson (Abram Louis) and “adopted daughter,” Gloria Holley; her grandchildren, Robert Johnson Jr. (Thomasina), Ralph Deal II (Michelle), Christina Johnson, Carla Bryson, Danielle Kinsey (Deon) and Jonathan Bryson; her great-grandchildren, Blake Deal, Mark Johnson Jr., Cameron and Christopher Saddler, Sterling and Parker Deal and Troy and Destiny Kinsey; the loving Tyler/Wright/Taylor Clan; and a host of other relatives and friends.

B.

To the Family and Friends of Lottie L. Tyler,

I express my deepest condolences to you all at this time. I can surely sympathize with the pain you are going through because like everyone else here on this Earth I have lossed a loved one in death. God's Word describes death a sting becaus it causes us so much pain and grief. Wouldn't it be great if we could just eliminate this enemy today. Well although we can not, it willl be gone in the future. At Revelation 21:4 we read, " And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Jehovah sets out this hope before us and it is no doubt very encouraging. What a wonderful thing it will be for death to be a thing of the past. My heart goes out to you at this time and your family is definitely in my prayers.

I am sorry to read about the passing of your loved one that has fallen asleep in death.The loss of a loved one grieves the heart and makes us yearn for tomorrow, when Jehovah God keeps the promise he made at Rev 21:3-4 when death, mourning, outcry, pain and sorrow will be eliminated. Isn't that good news, these things that cause mankind so much pain will be eliminated.

Dear Family and Friends,
It is understood that the pain, the grief, and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable when you lose a loved one. During these times, you can find comfort in God's Word. The Bible helps us to understand how Jehovah and Jesus feel about death. Jehovah promised that "He will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore."—Revelation 21:4 Jesus said that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus'] voice and come out." (John 5:28, 29) People who are to be restored to life right here on earth will be reunited with their loved ones. The dead will not be raised to life in a world filled with war, crime, and sickness, because God's purpose is that the whole earth be made into a paradise. They will have an opportunity to live forever on this earth in peaceful and happy conditions. What a loving God and such a wonderful hope for you and your loved one.
Sincerely,
A Bible Student

I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
