Martha Queen

October 12, 1947 - November 10, 2013

MARTHA QUEEN, born October 12, 1947 to the late John Henry and Pearl Smith in Florence County, South Carolina, was called to rest after a long battle with cancer at her home surrounded by her family on November 10, 2013
She received her education in North Carolina and Baltimore City public schools. Martha or “Mark,” as she was affectionately known, worked for DLLR as a claims examiner for thirty-four years before she retired.

Martha, the youngest of her six siblings, was preceded in death by her brothers Earl and Jacob and her sisters Thelma and Missionary Mary Ann Harrid. She was raised in the church and baptized at a young age. She sang on the choir and was a member of the Pentecostal Jerusalem Faith Hope and Charity Church under the leadership of the late Bishop Adams S. Keels where she was a member until her death. In 1967 Martha met the love of her life Adolph M. Queen, and after dating for several years they were married on June 8, 1974. Together they raised six children.

Martha was known as the neighborhood mother. Whenever she had an event at the house she could always look forward to a house filled with neighborhood children. She was a dear friend, always ready to prepare a meal for the sick and bereaved, never expecting a penny for it. She loved to cook and made sure that her children and grandchildren knew a little about it also. She would often dote over her grandchildren, and took great joy in the holidays. Her friends knew her to be dependable to the end and she could be counted on, no matter what the circumstances. She was kind and loved to sing and listen to her gospel music. She was a joyful soul and will be greatly missed

She leaves to mourn: her husband of thirty-nine years, Adolph M Queen; her sister, Mother Gertrude Gamble; her cousin, Pastor Caroline Watson; her six children, sons James W. McNeill Jr. (wife Kathleen), Michael J. McNeill Sr., Jacob McNeill Sr. (wife Eugenia), David R. Queen and daughters Rosalind M. McNeill and Shannel Holmes (husband Damon); one very special nephew who was like a son and best friend to her, Ronnie Presley; three brothers-in-law, three sisters-in-law, a host of nieces, nephews, other family and friends… AND of course her grandchildren, Ashley McNeill, Atyia Sanders, Ty-Nicca Sanders, Marsyl Sanders, Paul Tinson Jr., Gregory Johnson, Craig Johnson, Chris Johnson, Michael J. McNeill Jr., Camilla Lynch, Charleen McNeill, Jacob MeNeill Jr., Shannon McNeill, Adolph McNeill, Casey McNeill, Shawn Cherry, David Queen Jr., Jamar Queen, Tayvon Queen, Kyran Queen, Devin Queen, De-Sha Queen, Michael Palmer, Ty-Keysha Palmer, Nicole Queen, James Workman, Dontrey Holmes, Dyemond Holmes; and three great-grandchildren, Beautiful, Willow, and Jaycian.

To the family of Martha Queen:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). Even though I did not know Martha personally, I really wanted to express my condolences to you and your family during this difficult time. God truly cares how we feel and He is eager to reunite those that have fallen asleep in death with their loved ones once again. His word the bible speaks of this time occurring in the very near future when death will be a thing of the past. I wanted to share with you three scriptures, Isaiah 25:8 and Revelation 21:3, 4. I truly hope that those bible verses bring you comfort during your time of sadness.

Our family would like to express condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing." Sincerely, Linn & Family

I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. When a loved one dies the pain, the grief, and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable. At such a time we can find comfort in Jesus promise made to all who have loss loved one in death at John 5:28,29 which reads: Do not be amazed at this,the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out."

I'm sorry for your loss. Death is such a hateful and ugly event. But God's words in the Bible give us future hope at Isaiah 25:8 where HE promises to wipe away our tears and swallow up death forever. May you find comfort from God's words in the Bible.

My condolences to the family for the loss of your loved one. May you in your time of sorrow take comfort in John 5:28,29 where Jesus Christ makes the promise: "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out."
May the resurrection hope give you comfort and also peace. (Acts 24:15)
