Doris L. Drewery

August 4, 1949 - June 21, 2015

Doris "Lorraine" Drewery was born August 4, 1949 in Baltimore, MD. Her parents the former Doris Mae and Russell Drewery met in Martinsville VA and later moved to Baltimore for job opportunities.

Lorraine was named Doris after our Mother, so we called her Lorraine at home to keep down confusion.

Lorraine grew up and was educated in Baltimore. She met and married Henry B. Gause, and from their union Christopher and Michael were born.

Lorraine worked hard at home to raise Chris and Mike. She also worked outside of the home. She worked for Commercial Credit for several years prior to being employed by Baltimore Gas & Electric as a bookkeeping accountant. She worked for BGE 31 years until her retirement.

While working and raising her sons Lorraine accepted Christ and joined St. Paul Baptist Church. Lorraine involved herself in church activities and in her spare time enjoyed cooking, cooking shows and reading cookbooks.

Lorraine was an excellent cook and had many specialty dishes including authentic lasagna and gourmet cheesecakes all made from scratch. Lorraine passed her love of cooking to both Chris and Mike who have perfected and surpassed her original recipes.

Lorraine had a love of life and liked living it to the fullest but she also believed in an afterlife, and we will remember all aspects of her if her life.

She leaves to mourn: her two Sons, Christopher and Michael; Sister Carol/Kim Baker; daughter-in-Law, Dionne; Step Daughters, Jackie and Rose; god sister, Yvette; step-grandchildren, Johnne' and Will, Sisters-in-Law, Channie, Rose Ann, Rebecca, niece, LaTonya; special cousins, Alexander, Cathy, Dennis, Linda and Ronnie; a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, grandnieces and nephews and many friends.

Please accept my deepest sympathies. And may you find comfort in the Holy Scriptures, family and friends. I found comfort in the Bible promise that we will see our love ones again. The death of a loved one can indeed be the most upsetting experience of a lifetime. Recovering from grief may take months, a few years, or even longer. Just remember the acute pain you feel in the beginning will lessen in time and life will gradually seem less bleak and meaningless. There is an empty space where before there was a living human. The Scriptures make it clear that we have no reason to worry about the dead nor to be overwhelmed by sorrow. This is because, in God's due time, dead loved ones will be restored to life. There is so many questions people ask. Why did my love one have to die? Why did God take my love one? Will I see my love one again? What is the condition of the dead? Was humans created by God to die? Where are the dead? The Holy Bible gives the truth to these questions. And truth from the Bible is what gives us hope and comfort to endure.

There are two persons who knows how you feel deep within your heart, even when you speak no words. God know how you feel. (Psalms 51:17) Can you imagine how God felt when he saw his first born son die on the torture stake? God knows you need comfort and the scriptures gives us that comfort, especially when we are alone. One thing that can help you cope with your grief is to draw close to God and the resurrection hope. May Jehovah God give the family comfort and peace.
