Martha Diane Godbolt

June 17, 1945 - October 15, 2011

Martha Diane Godbolt was born on June 17, 1945 in Baltimore, Maryland to William and Ophelia Waddy. “Diane,” as she insisted on being called, passed from this life on October 15, 2011 at home surrounded by her family.

Diane attended public school in Baltimore, Maryland. She worked many different jobs until she decided that she wanted to work for herself and started a cleaning and catering business. Diane quickly realized that cooking was her passion and was known for her Pina Colada cake and Seafood Salad. She inspired her daughters and nieces to test their own culinary skills, and was always asked for ideas when a special recipe or dish was needed.

Whether it was through her distinctive baritone voice or the elegant art of letter writing Diane stayed in touch with family, friends, and community.

Diane married George Godbolt, January 4, 1980 and was a devoted wife. She dedicated her life to Jehovah and became one of Jehovah’s Witnesses on December 13, 2003. She was loyal and faithful to Jehovah and throughout her long illness and encouraged her family to look to Jehovah for comfort and support. Doing His will and purpose were foremost in her life.

To cherish her memory, Diane leaves her loving husband George, three daughters Tonya, Tarsha, and Tyra, two stepsons George and Tony, 14 grandchildren, 6 great grandchildren, two brothers William Waddy (Patricia) and Malcolm Waddy (Sheree), two sisters Gloria Harris and Marlin Gibbs (Clyde), and a host of nieces and nephews, other relatives, and friends.
