Dear Family
We too are greatly saddened by the loss of a beloved family member. In grieving, our hope is in God to whom we pray silently and loudly. Let us have faith and belief in Jesus, saying in John 11:23-26 Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again." Martha said to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day." Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this?" So, let us pray "Lord, thank you for the beautiful gift of life. I dedicate my life to You?—?please lead me and guide me as my Lord and Savior. I trust that the path created for me is perfectly designed by you. Father, as I struggle through this valley, thank you for the blessings in my life. As I cry in despair, please draw near and soothe my heart. In Christ's name, I pray. Amen."

To the family,
I am deeply sorry for the loss of your dear loved one. Death can be hard to cope with but fortunately we can draw comfort from the scriptures. One particular scripture is found at Isaiah 25:8, which says in part, "He (God) will swallow up death forever." One day soon, God will not only get rid of death, but He will also resurrect our dead loved ones. May this promise bring you comfort and peace during this time of need.

Condolences to the Weaver family. I am so sorry to learn of your loss. The Holy Scriptures assures us that the time will soon come when mankind's enemy death will be no more. May you find comfort in the words found in the Bible book of Isaiah 25: 8 when it speaks of a time when almighty God will swallow up death forever and tears will be wiped from all faces.
