Pamela Wilson

March 9, 1965 - October 16, 2016

Pamela Wilson, affectionately known to all as "Pam" was born March 9, 1965 at Johns Hopkins Hospital to Bertha M. and the late George N. Wilson, Pamela was diagnosed with Downs Syndrome at birth, but that did not hinder her from living a normal life, She departed this life on October 16, 2016.

Pamela attended Kennedy Krieger School, and later transferred to Claremont Special education School where she graduated with her class in 1988.

Pamela was shy and quiet until she got to know you, but once she did she was very friendly and affectionate to everyone she met and spent time with.

Pamela attended two Adult Medical Day Care Centers: Trinity and Overlea, which she looked forward to going to daily. At Overlea, she enjoyed helping out lunch time, especially helping the older residents, and she made lots of friends there.

Pamela enjoyed going to the movies, the flea, and yard sales with her mother. As a young child you would often find Pamela and her mother walking to the thrift store on North Avenue or to Church on Sunday mornings. Pamela enjoyed the hymns and songs being sung at church and she would sing along and clap to the music. She and her mother shared a very special bond. But her favorite past time was listening to her radio and dancing, especially if Michael Jackson or The Jackson Five were playing Pamela loved children, and she had lots of nieces and nephews to extend her love to.

She leaves to mourn: her mother, Bertha M. Wilson; three sisters, Sharon, Sandra, and Natalie; three brothers, Bobby, Ivan and Gaylord; brother and sister-in-law, a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, an aunt uncle, other relatives, and friends,

I met Pamela when I was 8 years old living on Cliftview avenue in Baltimore City. She was the best childhood friend ever so sweet and just beautiful inside and out. I was told today that she passed. Rest in peace Pam. My sincere condolences to the Wilson Family
