

Angelia Chin

October 12, 1961 - September 6, 2021

Mother Angelia E. Chin heard the voice of Jesus saying, "Come unto Me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden and I will give you rest." (St. Matthew 11:28) MOTHER ANGELIA was born October 12, 1960 to A.P.E. Andrew and the late Sr. Mother Juanita Chin. She was the youngest of five children.

She was educated in the Port Norris and Millville School Systems. Mother Angelia moved to Maryland where she furthered her education to become a registered nurse and was employed by Amedisys Home Health Care.

Her spiritual life was shaped by her parents. (Proverbs 22:6) Train up a child in the way he should go and when he is old he will not depart from it. She became a Junior Minister of The Supreme Council Of The House Of Jacob, Inc. at the young age of 18. Mother Angelia was such a fiery speaker and held many positions in the church. She would often take missionary trips to visit the sick. One of her favorite songs was "Jesus Is Good To Me." As she was raised to trust in the Lord, and she raised her daughter, Sister Aniya Charity in the same manner. Mother Angelia loved to shop and was great at finding bargains. She had such a giving heart. If she had it and she thought you liked it, it was yours.

Mother Angelia was preceded by her mother, Sr. Mother Juanita Chin. She leaves to cherish her precious memory: her daughter, Sister Aniya Chin; her pop, Adv. Pres. Eld. Andrew Chin of Columbus, Ohio; her siblings, Melvina Chin of Jersey City, NJ, Andrew Chin (Joyce) of Milleville, NJ, Elds. Christine Chin of Columbus, Ohio and David Chin (Sandora) of Vineland, NJ; five nieces, four nephews, several great-nieces and -nephews, cousins, friends; special cousins, Ann Stewart and Elds. Darlene Felder; special friends, Mtr. Cosetta Davis and Stephanie Kelly.

Ps. 23:1 - The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

With Love, The Family

“ My condolences and prayers are for the family of Mtr Angela Of whom I was blessed to work in the concession stands with during the 80's. Not only a lady that was willing to work but one that sang with Choirs.

“ Angie was a very nice neighbor to me. We had many curbside chats, shoveled each other out when it snowed and just kept look out for each other. She was a gentle and kind spirit. I watched her raise her daughter Nia, how she cared and nurtured her as she has now blossomed into a beautiful young lady. My most memorable moments are when Angie would set up in front of her house and have a yard sale, (I was one of her re-occurring customers). Each time I look at the many lanterns I purchased from her yard sale, that fill and light up my deck, I will remember her. My thoughts and prayers are with the family.

“ Angi, I miss you more than you can know. We started as coworkers over 20 years ago and you became one of my closest friends. You are missed everyday, from your calming voice/perspective to your stern ways, yet always making me laugh. You have taught me compassion, many life lessons and simply how to love, but most importantly being a mother. Many prayers for your Dad, Aniya, and your family.

“ To my longtime friend, who became my sister my heart aches that you're no longer here with me. As a believer in Christ I know that our souls will meet again. Angi you were such a kind, selfless and faithful person all the way to the end. All of us who had the pleasure of ever meeting you, working with you, being taken care of by you have truly been blessed. Your faith in God was amazing and your love for Aniya and those close to you was very special. Although were hurting for now, God stopped your pain and gave you the rest that you needed and for that I'm grateful. Sending my prayers to your dad, Aniya, and rest of your family and friends during this difficult time. I imagine your mom was waiting for you when you came through the heavenly gates.
