

Annie Ruth Johnson

March 23, 1942 - May 10, 2020

Annie Ruth Johnson, 78, was born March 23, 1942 to Annie Brody and Reddick Powell in Richmond, Virginia. Her son Richard Burton, parents and brother Leon Powell welcomed her into their heavenly home May 10, 2020.

She grew up in Richmond, Virginia with her five siblings and attended Maggie Walker High School.

Annie was the sweetest and most kindhearted person to be around. She would literally give you the shirt off of her back. Annie loved her family and she adored children. She dedicated a great portion of her life to touching the lives of many children as an emergency foster parent, school bus driver as well as a homemaker.

Her greatest achievement, outside of being married to her husband James and being the mother to her children, Richard and Jamie. But being a grandparent to Adam, Brittany and Desmond was truly the highlight of her life.

Annie enjoyed quality time and vacationing with her family, going to Atlantic City, “beating” anyone she played in Spades. She will be sorely missed—especially for her mac and cheese, candied yams and fried chicken, but most of all, for her generous heart and spirit.

Annie leaves to cherish her memories: lovingly committed husband of 59 years, James Lee Johnson; doting and devoted daughter, Jamie Ann Johnson; three grandchildren, devoted Adam Lee Johnson, Brittany Edwards-Fowler and Desmond Higgs; three sisters, Golden Tregre, Rosalyn Huckaby and Connie Powell; and a brother, Edward Powell; also a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and many dear friends.

“ I will always remember Annie as a sweet, kind, soft spoken woman who greeted me warmly with a loving smile whenever I was in her presence. In our conversations, she was more concerned about how I was doing and other family members as she rarely voiced concern about herself. She was a lady of class whose memory will always remain with me. Praying for my Cousins peace and comfort
