

Bethea I. Jackson Jr.

March 28, 1967 - March 14, 2019

Bethea Ignatius Jackson Jr. was born March 28, 1967 to Rosemary Jackson and the late Bethea Jackson Sr. Bethea, affectionately known as "Kay" was informed by the chief architect that his new home was complete on March 14, 2019.

Kay was the youngest of Rosemary and Bethea's two children. He and his sister, Trini were sibling rivals way into their adult years. They shared a love only the two of them could understand.

Kay was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System and held many odd jobs throughout his life, including floor installation, vending services, and landscaping.

Kay was the type of person to do anything he could to help family and those in need. He was loved by many because of his infectious smile that would melt your heart.

Kay loved children and particularly his nieces, nephew and cousins. He looked forward to family gatherings, watching football games, long walks and socializing with friends.

Kay leaves to cherish memories: mother-Rosemary Jackson-Baird; stepfather-Clive (Steve) Baird; one sister- Trini Jackson; two nieces- Gabrielle Washington and Kylie Foreman; a great-niece-Kai Washington; a great-nephew-Hunter Brown; a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, family and friends.
