

Blanche H. Payne

April 30, 1930 - April 20, 2019

Blanche Unice Payne, daughter of the late Louis and Effie Hudson, was born on April 30, 1930 in Lynchburg, South Carolina. She departed this life on April 20, 2019 after a short illness.

Blanche graduated from Frederick High School and was the first of her siblings to graduate Morgan State College and pledge A.K.A Sorority. She loved being a part of her Sorority and the traditional colors they wore were pink and green. She always took her children to the Morgan homecoming football games and joined her sorority sisters for a performance of their song and dance. She first taught history at Booker T. Washington, Junior High School, then for many years at Lemmel Junior High School in Baltimore City and loved it. She retired while in her early 50's after having a mild heart attack.

Blanche loved to travel. She went to Hawaii, Florida and various other places. She enjoyed going to Ocean City; she also loved to go crabbing and eating crabs. Her last trip was last August 2018 with her daughter Gwen, granddaughter Siera and Siera's Aunt Paula. They went to Myrtle Beach for a few days and had a ball. Blanche would go anywhere with Gwen and Gwen enjoyed making her very happy. Blanche was a devoted wife to the late Herbert R. Payne who preceded her in death on March 15, 2016. She and Deacon Payne become members of the surviving daughter.

Blanche leaves to mourn; her loving and devoted daughter Gwen, granddaughter Siera Ashley Colbert, Chantelle Celia Jackson and great granddaughter Aniya Kalease Jackson, four sisters; Gertie Mae Hudson, Isabella Randall, Lorine H. Wheaden and Celia Jenkins. Also her Ivong sister-in-law, Irene Hudson. She had four brothers who preceded in death. Jame Franklin Hudson, Harold Hudson, Phillip Hudson and Ronald Hudson. She has a host of nieces, great nieces, nephews, great nephews and dear friends.
