

Brenda Thompson Farris

September 4, 1954 - March 4, 2021

On Thursday, March 4, 2021, our God in His infinite wisdom called His beloved daughter to His home in paradise. Brenda Joanne Thompson Farris was born to Alonzo Royce and Bernice Newbill Thompson on September 4, 1954 in Richmond, Virginia.

The oldest of three children, Brenda was educated in the New Kent County Public School system and graduated from Virginia State University (VSU), receiving a Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology. While at VSU, she was inducted into the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. Upon her graduation from college, Brenda worked as a Special Education teacher, attending to the needs of children with learning and developmental disabilities. It was here that she realized her people skills were best suited for the corporate sector, and she became a Customer Service Representative for Capital One Financial Corporation and State Farm Insurance Company.

Prior to retiring in 2019, Brenda worked for 12 years as a Lead Sales Associate (LSA) for the Virginia State Alcohol Beverage Control Authority where she earned great respect from her leadership and colleagues.

She professed her love for her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ at an early age, first joining Lebanon Baptist Church in Tunstall; later, a faithful member of a church closer to her home - Second Liberty Baptist Church in Quinton. While at Second Liberty, she was a member of the choir and remained devoted to the church, even throughout the COVID Pandemic.

Brenda was known to be kind, compassionate, and loving. She was devoted to her family, taking care of her aging mother and brother, who recently experienced failing health. Brenda transported them to physician visits, made sure their medicine was correct and taken on time. She lifted their spirits by keeping them connected to other family members and friends via regular phone calls.

Her compassion was also conveyed by way of her humane care of animals. Brenda LOVED animals and was known to have a menagerie. She was particularly fond of three dogs and one cat (Louie, Cleo, Princess, and Cinnamon).

Brenda enjoyed good Gospel music and was a member of a group known as the “Gospel Five”. The group provided joyous, foot stomping songs at funerals and special programs within the area.

When it came to her appearance, Brenda was always “dressed to kill”, wearing the most contemporary fashions and designs of the time. She was indeed a sharp dresser. While also having a sharp wit, she was known for giving her honest opinion with courtesy and sincere respect. Brenda could have been a wonderful Comedian. She loved to laugh, and Christmas was her favorite season. She was a consummate gift wrapper, taking great pains in coordinating the wrappings and bows while smiling from ear to ear when folks would say, “I know Brenda wrapped this gift. It’s too pretty to open.”

Brenda was a devoted daughter, loving sister, aunt, great aunt, cousin, and friend. She leaves to cherish precious memories, her mother, Bernice Newbill Thompson; sister, Theresa T. Fisher; brother, Gordon A. Thompson; aunt, Shirley DeShazo; two nieces, Alonna and Danielle Fisher; two nephews, Gordon Thompson, Jr., and Ross Thompson; one great niece, Kinley Barnett; and one great nephew, Isaiah Morris; and a host of cousins, relatives, and friends.

“ I lived two doors down from Brenda for many years. She used to babysit my oldest son Jamaal, and we shared many travel journeys together in our younger days to New York, D.C. and other sites. Being the youngest, Brenda was always the driver. There will always be a special place in the memories of my heart for my cousin Brenda.

I will keep Bunny, Theresa and Gordon in my prayers and thought at this most difficult time in your life. Marvin, Jamaal, Aaron and I are here to support you in any way you may need us.

Love, Peace and Blessing,
Diane

“ Brenda, I'll never forget the way you sang Go Down Moses, Way Down in Egypt's Land. Tell Ole Pharoah to let my people go. Rest in Peace.

Cousins Theresa, Gordon and Aunt Bunny:, may God & your memories keep you in perfect peace. Having found this poem to be true, I send to you with love and Godspeed.

For Grief by John Donahue

When you lose someone you love,
Your life becomes strange,
The ground beneath you becomes fragile,
Your thoughts make your eyes unsure;
And some dead echo drags your voice down
Where words have no confidence
Your heart has grown heavy with loss;
And though this loss has wounded others too,
No one knows what has been taken from you
When the silence of absence deepens.

Flickers of guilt kindle regret
For all that was left unsaid or undone.

There are days when you wake up happy;
Again inside the fullness of life,
Until the moment breaks
And you are thrown back
Onto the black tide of loss.
Days when you have your heart back,
You are able to function well
Until in the middle of work or encounter,
Suddenly with no warning,
You are ambushed by grief.

It becomes hard to trust yourself.
All you can depend on now is that
Sorrow will remain faithful to itself.
More than you, it knows its way
And will find the right time
To pull and pull the rope of grief
Until that coiled hill of tears
Has reduced to its last drop.

Gradually, you will learn acquaintance
With the invisible form of your departed;
And when the work of grief is done,
The wound of loss will heal
And you will have learned

To wean your eyes
From that gap in the air
And be able to enter the hearth
In your soul where your loved one
Has awaited your return
All the time.

“ My thoughts and prayers to the Thompson Family. Even though it is 4 months since dear Brenda has passed, I do know that it has been hard on them.

I do remember Brenda as a classmate full of passion. Last time I saw her she was surrounded by friends at our 45th class reunion having a wonderful time and yes, "Dressed to the T's".

I pray soon the family will have these loving memories to replace numbness and pain of yesterday.
