“ To my Family,
Once again the circle has been broken. Uncle Clarence will be sorely missed. His penetrating look, his slight smile will always be remembered. What I remember most about him is that my children thought that he and my father (Jonah) were twins. If the two were in a room together, they found it difficult to tell who was who. Family lean on God and your faith. I am with you in spirit. Let's draw closer together.
Love,
Arjonah Bullock Balmer
