

Clarence York

January 25, 1959 - June 17, 2019

CLARENCE "ROCK" YORK was born on January 25, 1959 in Baltimore City to the late Albert and Ida York. Rock received his education from Baltimore City public schools and the Community College of Baltimore.

In his youth he was actively involved with Recreation and Parks via Flaghouse Courts. He coached various basketball & football teams for years. Rock loved swimming, skating, playing pool, shooting dice, chess and of course his love every Sunday playing cards with his Pinochle Crew. Let's not forget he was a huge Ravens and Lakers fan and always enjoyed (boxing) fight parties at his nephew's house.

Rock was very reluctant to talk about his talents or skills though he had many. He was known by many as a mentor and never hesitated to be available to anyone needing him. Rock started his career as a Chef at Restaurant "2110" and went on to work for Bob Evans Restaurants for over 20 years until the time of his passing. Rock called the staff and employees his Bob Evans family, they loved and respected him.

Rock had a smile so big it could brighten your day, especially when he got his new teeth with a gold on each side.

Rock's love for his family was displayed not spoken and always unconditional. His greatest love was his son Tony and his daughter Keasha. He once said he could never love anybody as much as he loved his children until the day his twin granddaughters Haven and Janae were born. They were the loves of his life. Rock was preceded in death by his sisters Evelyn, Theresa and Zina.

He leaves to carry on his legacy his son Tony York, daughter Keasha York and twin granddaughters Haven and Janae Crowe.

He also leaves to cherish his memory: his oldest sister, Diana Thomas; brother, Charles York Sr. (Patsy) and brother Clifton York; three nieces, Tarnisha Johnson (Christopher), Kendra Butler, and Angel Forrest (Christopher); four nephews, Anthony "Mook" Thomas, Charles York Jr., Durrell York, Anthony Garrett; and a host of great nieces, great nephews, cousins and many devoted friends.
