

Daniel W. Jenkins

April 1, 1933 - March 2, 2019

Daniel William Jenkins born on April 1st, 1933 to the late William Jenkins and Margaret Johnston-Jenkins was one of five children in Baltimore, MD. Daniel departed his life on Saturday, March 2, 2019.

Daniel was educated in the Baltimore City School System. He loved to shoot marbles as a young boy and make friends. He loved to talk about past memories, and tell jokes (that were mostly funny to him). He loved to roller skate on the weekends. He was eager to teach his friends and family line dancing. He also enjoyed telling stories about the good times as a child with his sisters and brothers. Daniel enjoyed sharing memories about his time serving in the Army in Korea. After joining and serving in the Army, he married the love of his life, Ruth Jenkins.

Together, Daniel and Ruth had six children, three of which preceded him in death: two sons, Daniel Jenkins Jr., and Melvin Jenkins, and one daughter, Patricia Jenkins. Caring and supporting for his family was first priority. He was always building or fixing broken pieces or working on a new project. He was proud of his remodeled home that he lived in for 53 years. He was always taking pictures and recorded videos of all of his children and grandchildren's events (birthdays, vacations, holidays, proms, and more).

Often times, Daniel would pick up food from the local church and distribute the food and goods to his family and friends. He enjoyed eating every meal of the day, especially dessert.

He leaves to cherish his memories: daughter and son in law, Yvette Jester-Whitby and Vernon Whitby; daughter, Adrienne Jenkins; daughter, Deirdre Jenkins; sisters, Alice Bradley and Rosetta Denkins. Two of his siblings preceded in his death: brothers, Edward Jenkins and Melvin Jenkins. He also leaves five grandchildren: Amber Massaquoi, married to Louie Massaquoi; Janae Magazine, married to Marquis Magazine, Shakeyia Bailey, married to Ozie Bailey, Melvin Jenkins Jr., and Jasmine Bradford. He also left to cherish his memories are five great-grandchildren: Kadence,(Kadie), Jonathan (Jonlu), Johanna (Num- Num), Nolan, and Lucas (Cole) as well as a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and extended family and friends.
