I didn't know Mr. Cubby very well, but his wife Majorie and I had become good friends before her passing. Always remember Love never dies, He will remain in your hearts forever. “ Uncle David was a true blessing to me. I was blessed to have bonded with him the last 13 years. He was my encouragement and always cheered me on. I loved our times we watched NCIS in my visits home. He really was a dad to me and I will always cherish that. He gave me a special name that I will always treasure.
