“ The Sindler family extends our deepest sympathies to Desmond's family, friends, and former teachers and supporters. Desmond ('Superstar') Carr was a bright and engaging student at St. Ignatius Academy and always a intelligent, sensitive person. He greatly impressed his teachers and peers with his intelligence as well as his wry wit. His talents (and his charm) resulted in his teachers taking a special interest in him. Even when boarding school did not work out for Desmond, and transferring back into the Baltimore public schools was ill-suited to him, and he ran into some bumps, he still managed to get his GED and be accepted into Old Dominion University -- before his classmates from middle school were even graduated high school. The world will be a lesser place without this intelligent and caring person. (We are incredibly sorry not to be in town for the viewing and funeral. Please call on us any time.)

*With love,
Jeff and Family*
