

Donell Melshell McQueen

January 26, 1960 - June 9, 2022

Donell Michelle McQueen, daughter of Robert Cooper and the late Pauline Saunders (Hopewell), was born January 26, 1960, in Baltimore, Maryland. Donell departed her life in peace while asleep on June 9, 2022.

Donell received her education in the Baltimore City School System and graduated from Forest Park Senior High in 1978. She was employed at numerous places such as restaurants, being a caregiver, and most of all her heart was into childcare. There wasn't a child in the family she didn't watch.

Donell was a very fun, sweet and loving caring, compassionate and kindhearted, hardworking, and down to earth woman. Donell loved spending time with her family she enjoyed playing cards, eating crabs, laughing, dancing and enjoying life. Donell was the "Life of The Party or Cook Outs!" Donell kept a smile on people's faces and made everyone laugh everywhere she went. She loved to be around nothing but good vibes and energy. Donell made everyone fall in love with her spirit. She always kept it 100 and was as real as they come. One thing about Donell she sure nobody left her house laundry.

Donell leaves to cherish her memories are her loving and devoted husband and soulmate, Roy McQueen of 43 years, her two daughters, Candice Johnson and Emeka McQueen, one stepson, D'Andre McQueen, seven grandchildren, Alexis Ashby III, Damon Moore, Ca'mar Johnson, A'mira Spruiel, Myal Heckstall and Carron Spruiel Jr., her siblings Robert Hopewell and Pina McNeely, two son-in-laws, Dewayne Johnson and Nathaniel Gardner Jr., her uncles, Bert Hopewell and Harold Hopewell, two aunts, Bernice Hopewell and Louise Hopewell, two sister-in-laws, Stella McQueen, two brother-in-laws, John McQueen and Tyrone McQueen. A host of nieces, great nieces, nephews, great nephews and cousins.

Donell was preceded in death by her three brothers, Harold Hopewell, James McNeely, and Charles Hopewell.
