“ Hey Donna,
Missing you everyday. Still thinking I can pick up the phone and start talking to you. Missing how we used to go out and do things when I would come to Richmond. May you rest in Peace. Love, Della

“ I will miss Donna and her beautiful smile and happy disposition whenever we interacted. I missed her when she left the Supreme Court (where I work as well) and will always remember Donna and her special kindness. She was always a bright light! Please accept my sincere condolences and sympathy. May God give you peace and comfort. Joan Mielke

“ My sister my friend. Donna words can't express how I feel being here without you. I won't even try it right here. I miss you.

“ Dear Laretta and Family, I am so sorry to hear of Donna's passing. She was a very special lady as you know. Remembering the Sundays we all shared at Second Baptist Church under the direction of Rev Odie D Brown, as we grew. The many times we all attended events around the community. May the fond memories see you through the darkest moments.

“ I knew Donna when she was a young child. As Raymond was my friend, Donna was simply one of his little sisters. But Donna was never “simply” anything. She was sweet, kind and always wore a bright smile. In reading tributes posted by her friends, I see that has not changed. My love, warm thoughts and prayers are extended to the family. I know Donna will be missed but I pray that your wonderful memories will comfort you and the assurance of knowing she is resting, rejoicing, dancing and laughing in the presence of the Lord will give you strength.

“ I will miss my friend. She was a true light in a sometimes dark world. She fought the good fight and I know that she has received her crown.

“ I met Donna at the Supreme Court of Virginia and I would like to thank God for placing someone so special in my life with such great qualities that she shared with me; patience, caring, sharing, joy, humor and most of all a beautiful spirit that was welcoming as well as a delight to be around. I will truly miss Donna but I know that God loves her even more and now welcoming her with open arms. May God continue to bless and keep the family. "Joy Comes in the Morning"

“ Words seem inadequate to express the sorrow felt by the loss of my classmate Donna. She was always congenial and lady like. Her Blessed Quietness was most commanding. My heart is with you.

“ My heart hurts because I miss my Friend of 30+ years. I (Fred and I) send condolences to the Family. Without a doubt, Donna is with the Lord Jesus now. Absolutely!!! And after many conversations and prayers over the years, I know Donna loves her Family and would want you to be comforted during this time. It is amazing to me that even during the extreme challenges of the last seven years (and even the more severe challenges in the last two years), how Donna could be so concerned about others in the midst of what she was going through herself. I am speaking the truth. Amazing!!! And, her gratitude for those who helped her along the way and expressed care and concern - I remember one day she showed me a card someone had sent and letting me know that it was exactly the encouragement she needed at the time and other cards she had received and saved them, and at times even praying for the senders. Amazing!!! And in 2016, our drive "across country" to the Kingmakers Conference in Atlanta, Georgia and the funny conversations where we had each other laughing and asking where the last three decades went (smile). Donna truly lived an Amazing life and loved her Family and people and her presence here with us will be missed. God Bless You and we are Praying for your strength and comfort during this time.

“ Donna was a dear delight. At work we would laugh ourselves silly sorting mail. After I retired we met for lunch a few times and continued laughing. Even in her physical pain she wanted to be merry.

“ I first met Donna when she came on staff at the Office of the Executive Secretary, Supreme Court of Virginia. We worked in the same department.

She was a very nice person and I have good memories of her. Wishing the family well and Donna peace.

“ Although I went to school with Donna at Maggie L. Walker High School in Richmond, I knew her more because she became an extended member of our family (the Campbell family). If we had a gathering - my father's birthday, Thanksgiving, etc. more than likely, Donna was going to be there. Donna was funny in a quiet sorta way and she liked to laugh. You knew Donna thought you were crazy by her 'pronounced' facial expression (wide eyes with a 'Huh???' look). I will miss her presence, but I will always remember her sweet disposition. Keep 'em laughing in heaven, Donna. And, if they do some crazy stuff up there, give 'em the 'Huh????' look.
