

Dorothy Graham

June 15, 1942 - October 11, 2020

Dorothy J. Graham departed her earthly life peacefully on October 11, 2020. She was born on June 15, 1942 in Baltimore, Maryland to Grover R. and Katherine (White) Washington who preceded her in death. Dorothy loved and married her forever true love, Walter Graham, who preceded her in death in 1969.

She was one of four siblings, two of whom preceded her in death (Grover C. Washington and Charles Washington).

Dorothy received her education in the Baltimore City Public School system and was a proud graduate of Dunbar High School. Dorothy and Walter Graham had a profound love and shared that love with four beautiful daughters. Even with having her daughters, Dorothy was a mother to everyone she encountered and was affectionately known as 'the Neighborhood Mom' of the North Avenue and Washington Street corridor. With her warm and welcoming spirit, it wasn't a moment when she was not preparing a delicious meal to not only fill your stomach but also fill your soul.

Dorothy was a Stay at Home mom for many years. Even with being a stay at home mom, the love she shared was bigger than any job she could ever have worked or imagined. But, despite being very welcoming and caring, she had a swift tongue to get you back in line if needed. She loved music, with her favorite artist being Al Green.

Dorothy could be seen visiting and fellowshiping at Mt. Calvary Freewill Baptist Church in Baltimore on Oliver Street. Her life was a living example of the bible verse, Ephesians 4:32, "Be kind and be compassionate to one another, forgiving one another, loving one another, just as God has forgiven you in Christ".

Dorothy is survived by: one sister, Lois Brand; three daughters, Elaine Washington, Carolyn Washington, Telisa Graham, (Waltina Graham preceded her in death in 1999); six grandsons, Maurice Eley, Jerome Dixon, John Gibson, Devin Braxton, Derrick Pugh (Kierra), Dominic Pugh, (John Eley preceded her in death in 2017); twenty-two great grandchildren; one great,great grandchild; a special niece, Yvonne Dawson; and a host of family and friends whom she loved and touched dearly. She will be greatly missed by all but her cherished memories will live forever
