“ I was one of Mr. Ransom’s nurses when he was at Johns Hopkins. He spent a lot of time on my unit and I grew to really care about him. He would always refer to me as “pregnant” because I was 5/6 months along when I met him. I thought of him and decided to search his name, and ended up finding him here... My condolences to his family.

I’ve been the nurse to thousands of patients and don’t remember many names. It’s been 2 years since I was his nurse and I still remember his name. That alone speaks volumes to the kind of man he was.

“ Sending condolences to the family of “ HEAVY“. May God continue to comfort you during this hard time. Heavy was a busy man when his health allowed him to be, but he was never to busy for those he considered to be a friend. I’m glad I had the opportunity to be one of them. Rest in paradise!!
