

Elizabeth Jane Taylor

December 4, 1930 - March 7, 2019

On Thursday, March 7, 2019, God called home beloved Elizabeth Jane Taylor to be the next angel into the pearly gates. In South Carolina on December 4, 1930, Elizabeth's birth blessed this earth. She was preceded in death by her parents and husband, Collier Taylor.

She received her formal education in South Carolina. After her schooling, she moved to Richmond, Virginia. She was employed by Johnston-Willis Hospital as a dietitian. After more than 25 years of dedicated service she retired.

At her leisure, she enjoyed reading her Holy Bible, listening to gospel music and watching television. Elizabeth adored her grands and always had a welcoming arm to receive them.

We thank God for sharing her with us. There are no words to describe our love for her. We humbly submit her to God our Gracious Father whose "mercies endureth forever." Her legacy of unconditional love and self-sacrificing service to others will remain forever in our memories.

She leaves to cherish her memory a caring daughter, Charlie L. Fleming; six grandchildren, Jeanette Pauley, John Pauley, Roy Pauley (Tracy), Joseph Leonard (Kim), Jannie McDonell (Robert) and Judy Leonard; seven great-grandchildren and six great great-grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends.

My Journey's Just Begun

Don't think of me as gone away, my journey's just begun, life holds so many facets this earth is only one.

Just think of me as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years. Think of me wishing that we could know today how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.

And think of me as living in the hearts of those I've touched for nothing loved is ever lost and I was loved so much.
