

Emmett Lee Gill Sr.

February 3, 1935 - September 22, 2021

Emmett Lee Gill, Sr., was the youngest of eleven children born to Lillie and Lou Gill on February 3, 1935 in Littleton, North Carolina. His parents raised him in a lively, loving, and spiritual home. He departed this life peacefully on September 22, 2021 at his home. All ten siblings, Fred Lee, Roy, Thomas, Lawrence, Benny, Lavenia, Ollie, Willie Mae, and Louis preceded him in death.

Emmett was educated in the Halifax County Public School System. As an early adult, Emmett relocated to Baltimore, Maryland for better employment opportunities. In 1959, Emmett welcomed a baby girl, Pamela. He courted and married his true love, Susie, in 1960. From this union two wonderful children were born, Beverly and Emmett, Jr. Emmett Jr. departed this life in 1995, while Susie departed this life in 2000. Emmett Sr. and Susie enjoyed Sunday dinners with their family and visiting various buffets around town.

He was employed as a Machinist with Esskay Meats for over 18 years. He was later employed for 17 years with the Department of Defense within the National Security Agency, until his retirement on April 30, 2000.

Emmett joined New Christian Memorial Church on Palm Sunday, April 2002, under the leadership of the late Rev. Dr. Walter Bronson, Jr., whom he dearly loved and respected. He regularly attended the 8am service and was a faithful supporter of all organizations and ministries. Emmett loved his church family and the after Sunday Service breakfast treats.

Emmett was an avid Baseball and Football enthusiast. His favorite team was the Pittsburgh Steelers. He enjoyed going to the movies and going out to eat with his longtime companion, Dorothy Hall. He especially enjoyed going out to lunch after doctor appointments with his dutiful daughter and care giver, Beverly. They typically dined on crab cakes and steaks, his favorites. Beverly and Emmett shared their love for retail therapy and Macy's. Emmett was a dapper dresser and appreciated good smelling cologne gifted by Pamela. He also loved fancy cars and sitting in the park while reading the newspaper.

He leaves to mourn: two dedicated daughters, Pamela and Beverly. Granddaughter, Symone Hammett (Clint). Grandson, Qwenton Gill. Two great grandchildren, Gunner and Harlow Hammett. Long-time companion, Dorothy Hall, who sorely misses him. Family friend, Delores Gantt and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
