

Ernestine Brockington

September 8, 1929 - March 30, 2019

Ernestine Brockington, affectionately known as "Mother", "Tina" and "Tine" daughter of the late Ora Lee Carter and John Henry Johnson. She was born in Lancaster, South Carolina on September 8, 1929. Ernestine departed this life on March 30, 2019 after a lengthy illness, however she remained positive and made the best of her situation and was a fighter until the end.

Ernestine was educated in the South Carolina and Baltimore City Public Schools. She was employed as a custodian for the Baltimore City Schools and later a substitute teacher. She later worked as a private duty nurse and finally as a daycare group leader for the Sparrow Learning Center, where she retired from in 2003 after thirteen years.

Some of the things she enjoyed were singing, writing songs and playing the piano. She enjoyed listening to all types of music in her spare time. She loved special dishes: (polk salad, venison, oyster stew and corn bread with buttermilk. She also loved going on adventures to the parks, beaches, ocean, mountains, caves and traveling all over the country.

Ernestine had many friends who loved and respected her. She will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved her.

She leaves to cherish her memory: two daughters, Barbara and Tyronnis: son-in-law, Burnell; seven grandchildren, David, Anthony, Kenyon, Andrene', Mitchell, Eric and Kiaun; great-grandchildren, Darius, Kawan, Jahmiah, Devron, LaSean, Andre, Kaelyn, Trevor, Sophia and Aaron; great-great-grandchildren, Ne'Archus King and Persaius Queen; nieces and nephews, Jerry, Carroll, Bernard, Lil, Joy and Tina "Ernestine"; and a host of other relatives and friends.
