

Florine Brown

August 6, 1941 - May 1, 2021

Florine Brown, daughter of the late Horace and Mildred Brown, was born on August 6, 1941. She departed this life on May 1, 2021 with her brothers Joe and Richard by her side and a smile on her face.

She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System.

Florine worked at Oscar T. Smith Printing for over 40 years. She was a member and dedicated usher at Village Baptist Church.

Florine was a special person. She was such a caring person and always wanted to help others. She strongly believed in "family first". Her daughter often told her she should have been a nurse! Florine loved to travel, spend time with family and had a flair for fashion. If you knew Flo, you know she loved her handbags, shoes, and scarves.

She loved spending time with her great-grandchildren and always mentioned how funny they were. Florine knew all bus routes and could tell you what time the bus would come and what the weather would be for that day. If it was raining, she always reminded you to have your umbrella with you.

Florine loved jazz music and her favorite artist was Nancy Wilson. She also had a love for gospel music.

Florine was preceded in death by her brothers Phillip, Jerome, Clarence, James and Horace Brown.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her daughter, Tanya Bouldin, two sons, Andre and Aaron Brown; her grandson, Andre Brown, Jr. preceded her in death; granddaughter, Tori Bouldin; two great-grandchildren, Tristan and Triniti Martin; two brothers, Joseph and Richard Brown; son-in-law, Troy Bouldin; and a host of other relatives and friends..

“ Cousin Florine, never got to know you when I was young, never got to know you now that I'm older, but now that I know you, you found God before I met you. Now that I know you, I will always remember you through your picture! Bless you Cousin Florine, Amen!

“ T, I just wanted to extend my condolences to you and your family in the loss of your mother. Her going home service was a beautiful tribute to a classy lady, and I was honored to be a part of it. She is resting in the arms of the Lord and has found the glory. I love you and I'm here for you whatever you need whenever you need it.....your vanilla sister in Christ Michele
