“ Words can not express how much you are missed already. I'm going to miss our Wednesday visits. We talked, we prayed, we laughed, and shared so much with each other. When you called me after I had just left you to say goodbye, in my heart I knew it would be our last conversation. I'm so grateful for the God moment we shared with agreeing to not say goodbye but, that we would see each other later. Thank you for the love you have shown toward Nehemiah(your sweet boy, as you called him) and I. Rest well Ms. Wright. Its not goodbye, its see you later. Love you always, Tyreese

“ To My Cousin Georgia ...I have always felt the warmest and most beautiful spirit from you. You were so soft spoken, but I knew you walked with a heavy stick. I was always felt special in your presence because of who you were. I admired you for the accomplishments you made and contributed to our Country. I was, and still am, so proud of you were. I showed my co-workers your picture and I let everyone know the great things you have done. You were a God-fearing woman who raised God-fearing children, who all have grown up and done well. You were an awesome mother, grandmother and cousin to me. You lived well. I know you our Father in heaven is welcoming you saying, "well done my good and faithful servant.
