

Gloria Jean Washington

April 2, 1937 - October 26, 2021

Gloria Jean Washington was born on April 2, 1937. She departed this life on October 26, 2021

Gloria was born to the late John and Elizabeth Coates. She was preceded in death by brother Sam and sister Ophelia.

In 1956 Gloria received her high school diploma from Booker T. Washington in Reidsville, North Carolina

On December 31, 1960 Gloria Coates married William Nathaniel Washington at St. Peter Claver Church in Baltimore, Maryland. From this union they had two children Sylvia Washington and the late Valerie "Candi" Jones.

Gloria attended United College medical and Dental Assistant and where she received her certificate of completion in Dental Assisting. She later worked for Howard County Charter Bus Company where she retired as Bus operator. Also in 1994 she was awarded URJA Driver of the year.

Gloria will be best remembered by her strong resilient honesty. Oh yeah and her good ole' zealous appetite. Also, a lifelong Baltimore ORIOLES enthusiast. She loves fishing, bowling, and spending time with her loved ones. And her favorite saying "GOD IS GOOD".

She leaves to mourn: Her oldest brother John Coates, daughter Sylvia Washington, two grandkids Shawnta Sharpe, and Atwain Johnson, one great-grandchild Starcia Sharpe and a host of nieces and nephews and relatives and friends.

In Remember

What if the stars in the sky are openings in heaven where Great-Grandma shines down to let us know she is ok and happy. (Love you Original Grandma from Starcia)
