

Gregory Rouse

December 15, 1962 - February 4, 2020

Gregory was born in Baltimore, MD, on December 15, 1962 to his loving parents Delois Rouse and Harry Rouse Sr. HE grew up in the Edmondson Village neighborhood. He attended Baltimore City Public Schools where he played several sports including football, basketball and wrestling. He graduated from Edmondson High School.

After graduation Gregory enlisted and served in the United States military in which he left with honors. Gregory was a hard working and strong family man. When he turned 12 he started a gig as a local newspaper delivery boy. However, his passion was cooking and he eventually went on to a joyful career of managing the kitchen at Applebee's Bar and Grill. He also worked at Charles Village Pub, and UNO's Pizzeria and Grill. Gregory also loved spending time with his friends and family. He was truly the life of the party. Despite generational differences between his children and grandchildren, Gregory always seemed to find a way to fit in through dancing, smiling and his competitive nature. He was a father figure to much of the youth around him. Gregory was very popular throughout Baltimore. He had a giving personality as he was generous to friends in need. He was known for saying "What Up Babyyy" and "Can You Woo Woo Woo". On February 4th 2020, God called for his presence in heaven and we gained another angel. He will truly be missed. Gregory was predeceased by his father Harry Rouse Sr, sister Sarita Rouse and one nephew James "Brandon" Battle.

He is survived by his mother Delois Rouse, his eldest brother Harry Rouse JR., another brother Eric Rouse, sister Alisa Rouse, nephews Shawnte and Donte White, his children Gregory Rouse Jr., Antonio Rouse and Natasha Rouse, his granddaughters Azaria and Sariyah Rouse, special loved one Amy and a host of other family and friends.
