

Hattie Bolden

December 21, 1943 - June 22, 2020

Hattie Jean Bolden, the youngest child of Henry and Blanche Walton was born on December 21, 1943 in Baltimore, Maryland. She transitioned to her heavenly home on June 22nd, 2020.

Hattie was reared in a strong Christian home with seven siblings. During her early childhood, she attended the public schools of Baltimore City.

Hattie worked at Bugle Laundry in Baltimore City until it closed.

Hattie married William Bolden, Sr. and from that union a son was born, William Bolden, Jr. and although William Sr. and Hattie went separate ways the remained cordial to this very day.

Hattie became a stay at home mom. She was a very fun, happy go lucky and energetic being. The doors to her home were always open for family and friends who came frequently and they would gather to laugh, dance to music, drink hearty and eat.

Hattie suffered a massive stroke in the late 1990's, she then moved into Lanvale Towers until the year 2011, at which time she was placed in Genesis Multi-Med for 24 hour care.

Although she was a resident at Genesis Multi-Medical, she continued to have a bright smile and a hearty laugh and made many devoted friends from the staff. This is where Hattie remained until God called her to come be with Him at her eternal home.

Hattie was preceded in death by her mother (Blanche), father (Henry), sisters (Leonia and Mae), and brothers, (Lewis and Henry Jr.)

She leaves to continue to hear the sound of laughter thru her two children, Stephanie Walton-Reed and William Bolden Jr.; grandchildren, Quana Bolden and DeAsia Bolden; great grandchildren, Davon, Michael and Denver; her devoted sister, Dorene Hurt; brother-in-law, James Hurt; nephew, Robert Walton; nieces, Cynthia Walton, Janesetta Hurt, Denise Johnson-Karen Hurt; a host of devoted great nieces, great nephews, other relatives and many many friends.
