

James E. Morris Jr

December 8, 1952 - May 2, 2020

James Edward Morris, Jr. was born December 8, 1952 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Essie Mae James-Vines and James Edward Morris, Sr. and a surviving stepfather, Oscar Vines. He departed his life on May 2, 2020 after a lengthy illness.

James grew to be a brilliant inquisitive young man attending Baltimore City public schools and graduated from Mergenthaler Vocational High School where he studied Engineering graduating with honors.

In 1971 James left to join the military "USAF" United States Air Force where he served until 1975 with an honorable discharge.

On November 18, 1975 James married Donetta Robinson where he formed a union bringing forth one son, Gerard Morris.

He later went on to work with Data Control in 1985-1988 as an Accountant and further his assistance to many as Accountant/Tax Preparer.

James was liked and loved by many, forever lending his loyal friendship. His smile and laughter was refreshing and innocent. He carried a sense of back in the day love with his presence, a love most men of this generation lack today. He had many layers to his character, many family and friends can attest of his being strong willed, over protective, a perfectionist, never content, yet reserved. He was a true Raven's fan with his favorite player being Troy Smith. He was a man of his word and always on time. He will forever be one of those few Great Men.

He leaves to mourn: one son, Gerard Morris and grandson, Raheem Morris; a daughter he adopted as his own, Denise Preddy and granddaughter, Uzshae Butler; two brothers, Paul Allen Jones "Cookie" and Dennis James, whom preceded him in death; a very close first cousin "like sister" Priscilla Bryant Jones; two aunts, Frances Bryant and Nancy V. Bryant; close friends, Joan Smith, Victoria Howard, Clarence Hicks and Johnny Jones; as well as a host of other family and friends.
