

Jesse Smith III

May 28, 1967 - March 28, 2020

JESSE SMITH, affectionately known as “Moosie”, was born on May 28, 1967, in Hamlet, North Carolina. After a lengthy illness, Jesse ascended to take his place amongst the angels on Saturday, March 28, 2020.

Jesse was born to Mrs. Shirley Smith and the late Mr. Jesse Smith, Jr. He grew up in a large, loving family; with three brothers and two sisters. Jesse attended Richmond Senior High School where he studied technical trades. After graduation, Jesse relocated to Baltimore, Maryland in 1971. The nineties were a particularly wonderful time, as Jesse would meet the love of his life, DeRea’ during a chance encounter outside of his job. Later Jesse and De’Rea married on May 26, 2000 and together they raised a beautiful, blended family. Jesse earned a living for many years working at Murry’s Steak House until its closing. After Murry’s, Jesse found employment with Service Tire Tuck Centers (STTC). He completed his professional career with STTC once his health started to decline.

Jesse was also a student of the ‘school of life’ and the many lessons he learned molded him into the jovial, out-going man loved by family and friends alike. Jesse’s trademark good-humored spirit was part of his charm and you could count on a great time whenever he was around. Jesse was out- spoken and he freely expressed what he thought or how he felt about any matter. However once he fell ill, Jesse became more reserved as his activities were limited by his health.

Jesse was a man who loved the Lord and appreciated the many blessing bestowed in his life. He loved to go fishing, shopping and enjoyed working on cars. He was definitely a food connoisseur, and his favorite meal was gravy smothered pork chops and mashed potatoes. Though born in North Carolina, Jesse was a true Baltimorean and he loved his Ravens. Ever the TV aficionado, he and DeRea’ could often be found watching ‘Gunsmoke’ and just enjoying life.

A loving husband, protective father, fun-loving grandfather and a true friend, Jesse was loved by many and will be sorely missed. He leaves to honor his life and celebrate his legacy: his wife, DeRea' Smith; his children, Jesse Smith IV, Alishia Hance, and Dominic & Brittany Wade; his mother, Shirley Smith; his siblings, Bernard Smith, Maurice Smith, Sherry Smith and Tim Skipworth; two sisters-in-law, Tammy Smith and Joyce Macklin; four grandsons, Kamryn Smith, Amani Wilson, Ja'Juan Brown and Dominic Wade, Jr.; two granddaughters, Peyton Wade and Hayden Wade; God-daughter, LaToya Antony; close friend, Tony Thompson, as well as, a host of relatives and friends. Jesse's sister, LaTonia Smith, preceded him in death.

“ Jesse you never said that your leaving you never said good bye. You were gone before I knew it. And only God knew why. A million times I needed you, a million times I cried If love alone could have saved you, you never would have died. In life I loved you dearly, In death I love you still. In my heart you hold a place, that no one could fill. It broke my heart to lose you, But you didn't go alone. For part of me went with you The Day God took you home.

“ Derea, Shirley, Jesse, Bernard, Sherry, Maurice and Tim. You guys are in my thoughts and prayers. I wish I could be up there with you at this time but it's not possible. Just want you to know, that God make no mistakes. Yes, this hurts knowing we can't see him, hug him, or talk to him physically. He will always be in our heart, thoughts, and memories. Family, we will get through this. I Love you all. Love Sha -n- Sequoia

“ Lord this is so hard for me to write this. Moosie was so dear to me. I remember growing up in a little town call Newtown in Hamlet NC. My big brother was my heart. We shared long talks together about some of everything. I would get so excited just to hear his voice over the phone. When he would come home to visit, I would be like a little child waiting for Santa on Christmas Eve. Moosie and I had a close bond. I will always cherish the memories, talks, hugs, love we had as a family. Rest easy big brother. Love always, Sha
