

John W. Mae

December 24, 1954 - April 20, 2019

John W. Mae, son of Edward and Mary Custis, was born on December 24, 1954, in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life suddenly on April 20, 2019. John was called Johnny by his family members. He attended Dunbar High School. Johnny disliked school at that time. You would have never known because he enjoyed reading and was good with figures.

Johnny acknowledged he needed God. He accepted the Lord as his savior and was baptized in September 2004.

He worked as a chef in his earlier years at Rallo's. He could make a delicious Pineapple Upside Down cake. His last place of employment was Mainline Automotive Parts.

He was quiet, reserved, and a kind hearted person. He was always willing to give of himself. If you needed a cigarette and he had a pack, he had no problem giving you one.

You could always find him listening to music, his favorite being slow jams or watching action movies. In his earlier days, he loved dancing. His dance was the Fred Astaire. Later on in life, he would only do the two step.

We also called him, Mr. Fix It around the house. Not really, but my mother wants you to know that he did get better. I want you to know, he never gave up on whatever project he would take on.

After many struggles, he realized enough was enough, and began to live his life just for today. God is good, and we were really proud of Johnny. Our family bond was blossoming.

Johnny had no children but he inherited helping to care for his sister Gwen's dog, Max. Max keeps whining because he is missing his friend.

Let's all remember, he is gone in body only. Johnny's smile, spirit, and wittiness will live within us forever.

No one knows what tomorrow will bring.

Johnny was preceded in death by his sister, Gwendolyn and brother, Ernest.

Johnny leaves to cherish his memories: his parents, Edward and Mary Custis; one brother, Kevin; three sisters, Jaqueline, Linda, and Karen; three brothers-in-law, Al, Martin, and Anthony; four aunts, Helen, Arlene, Carolynann, and Regina; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.

“ My condolences go out to the family on the loss of a very special person to all of you. Death as we know in this world is a part of life that we find hard to accept. As you prepare to lay your loved one to rest, may you can find comfort from your Bibles. Please know that GOD is a stronghold in the time of your distress. Nahum 1:7.

“ Please accept my condolences to the family. I hope Psalm 34:18, may bring comfort as it mentions that God is close to those broken in heart and He saves those crushed in spirit. Yes, we can rely on Jehovah God (Psalm 83:18) through prayer (Psalm 65:2). My deep regards.
