

Johnnie Mae Campbell

June 29, 1927 - April 2, 2019

Johnnie Mae Campbell, the daughter of the late Ed and Sophia Corley was born on June 29, 1927 in Columbia, South Carolina. She transitioned to be with the Lord on April 2, 2019. She was preceded in death by her husband Edward Campbell, Sr., her son, Jackie Leon Campbell, her brother, Leroy Corley and her sister, Martha Corley Jones.

Johnnie Mae who was affectionately called "Skippy" grew up in Columbia, South Carolina, where she received her education at The Booker T. Washington High School. Always a fashion icon and a model at heart, Skippy continued her education in cosmetology. She was the curling iron queen and could create a masterpiece atop your head despite the length of your hair.

After meeting the love of her life, Edward Campbell, Johnnie Mae moved to Portsmouth, Virginia, where she went to work for the Board of Education as a dietician. She enjoyed working with the children and they all loved her dearly. Everyone called her "Mama" as she was that person who took care of everybody's children. She retired after 30 years of service.

Johnnie Mae moved to Baltimore in 2012 to live with her daughter Barbara. She was an active member of the Eastern Stars, a wonderful cook, and a person always willing to give a helping hand. She lived her motto: "If I can help somebody as I travel along, then my living shall not be in vain."

Johnnie was a talented alto and would sing the songs of Zion in church as a youngster. She accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as her personal Savior as a child and was an active member of multiple churches throughout her life. Mama was mischievous and always like to laugh, tell jokes and be a prankster. Her hearty laugh, her beautiful smile and her vibrato voice will never be forgotten.

She leaves to mourn: one daughter, Barbara Corley; one son, Edward Campbell, Jr.; one sister, Margie A. Smoke; one daughter-in-law, Annette Campbell; three special sons, Lloyd Wagstaff, Robert Ellis, Ronald Wright; six grandchildren; twelve great grandchildren; three great great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives and friends.
