“ You always worked for God. Visiting the sick, administered communion to the sick and shut in. Took good care of your family. A good example of patience. Even if you were mad, you still kept calm and handled the situation. You didn't complain no matter how bad the pain had gotten. You will truly be missed. I love you Brother in Law. Take your rest.

“ Dear McLeod Family & Friends,

My sincere sympathies to all on the passing of Joe. I remember Joe as a dedicated worker and supportive friend. He willingly shared his knowledge with me and set a good example of leadership skills. I always enjoyed working with Joe to resolve equipment or personnel issues in the plant. Even when things looked bleak, Joe stayed positive and focused. He would cheer me up and assure me it would all work out - and it always did. He made work fun and we shared many laughs. Joe had a unique laugh. He was greatly missed when he retired and I know he is greatly missed now.

Sincerely, Allan Andreycak, engineer at W.R.Grace

“ I am deeply saddened by the passing of Joe. He was my boss for about 8 years or so I would guess. He was probably the best boss I ever had. What I remember most about Joe was how he would not know where anything he needed was. Like keys or eyeglasses. But he would remember where a part was in a crowded area that was put there 4 years ago. He would have the part in 3 seconds. But couldn't find his hard hat. Great sense of humor too. I'm sure he will be missed. Sorry for your loss Ms Brenda.
