

Kenneth A. Brown Jr.

November 12, 1982 - September 28, 2019

KENNETH ALAN BROWN, JR, affectionately known as "Boo" or "Kenny", departed this life on Saturday, September 28, 2019.

Kenneth Jr. was born on November 12, 1982 in Baltimore, Maryland to Laverne Jay and Kenneth Alan Brown, Sr.

Kenneth was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He worked in various jobs throughout his life, but he especially loved his most recent job as a Truck Driver at Easy Movers where he worked since June 2004.

Kenneth's LOVES... He loved his kids. He loved fishing. He loved driving his car with music on blast. He loved agitating his little sister Shanika. He loved knowing that he could stop in to see his Mom and Dad and get a home-cooked meal at any given time. He mostly loved his many talks with his Mom.

At the early age of eight, Mr. Lee Jay, Sr entered Kenneth's life and loved and fathered Kenneth as his own. Kenneth loved his Dad (Mr. Jay). It was he who introduced him to truck driving, and it became Kenneth's passion.

Kenneth's memory will be forever cherished by: his fiancée, Teasha Christian; two daughters, Ta'Myra and Na'Kiyah; three sons, Kenneth III < Kyon and Khalil; his loving parents, Lee Jay, Sr., and Laverne Jay; three siblings, Shanika Jay (fiance Coqunetay), Patsy Edwards (Carl Sr.), Lee Jay Jr. (Ann); two aunts, Denise Jackson and Pamela Baskerville (Harold); two godmothers, Loretta Winder and Delores Yates; one godson, Jalen Glenn; and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins and caring friends.

Kenneth was preceded in death by his grandparents Percy and Bernice Henry; and four uncles, Percy Henry, Jr., Tyrone Henry, Kevin Henry and Marvin Jackson.

We cherish the thirty-six years Kenneth spent with us, and we will miss him daily.
