

Kenyon A. Condrey

November 6, 1998 - July 4, 2019

Kenyon Antonio Condrey was born November 6, 1998 in Baltimore, MD to Royale and Latisha Condrey. He attended Baltimore City Public Schools. Kenyon was "becoming of age" when his life was tragically taken on July 1, 2019. He recently got his driver's license, a new job, and was working towards his GED.

Kenyon spent special time on the road with his dad driving a 18-wheeler, he then decided he wanted a Commercial Drivers's License. He loved basketball, attended basketball camps and played with Baltimore best East and West side teams, Chick Webb, Bentalou, Pikesville, Woodlawn and Edgecomb Circle. Kevin Durant was his favorite player and the Oklahoma City Thunder was his favorite basketball team.

Kenyon's smile was infectious, and he always managed to charm those close to him. As a child his independence was always on display. Everyone has fond memories of Kenyon selling lollipops at his grandparents wedding reception. Kenyon loved watching sports, riding dirt bikes and playing video games. Most of all Kenyon loved laying across the foot of his mothers bed while they talked Kenyons pride and joy was watching his niece (Mykah) and nephew (Ashton) grow up.

Kenyon leaves to cherish his memory: his loving parents Royale and Latisha Condrey; his sisters, Kierra Boyd-Wallace (Carlos), Shakia Montgomery (Broderick); brother, Royale "Tony" Condrey; nephew, Ashton Wolf; nieces, Mykah Kyle and Skye Wallace, (due any day); grandparents, Marilyn Boston, Patrica Bentley (James), Henry Boston Jr. (Bridget); Aunt Tiffany Haskett (Luqman), Uncle Henry "Rock" Boston III; god brother, Jaquan Witherspoon and a host of extended family and friends.

“ Kenyon was a wonderful young man with an enormous amount of potential. He had wonderful loving parents and it genuinely broke my heart to see his passing. I worked with a lot of young men in the city and Kenyon was one that truly was going to make it in life. He touched my heart.
