

Larry Richardson

November 18, 1955 - February 5, 2019

Larry Richardson was born on November 18, 1955 to James Richardson and Thelma Irene Henry. He departed this life on February 5, 2019 after a lengthy illness.

Larry attended the Maryland School for the Blind and he graduated in 1975. While attending high school, he was a champion wrestler and he loved to talk about his years as a wrestler. He ran track and field and he played baseball. He was an excellent athlete. He was multi-talented; he played drums in school and at his church.

He married the love of his life, Sabrina, on April 12, 2003. They were blessed with three children, Tyleata Marie Richardson, Shaquille Marche, and Lashai Richardson.

Larry worked at the Blind Industries and Services of Maryland for 30 years as a machine operator. He was recognized for his outstanding work after five and ten years of service.

He loved listening to jazz music, playing the drums, and cooking. He was known for his tasty macaroni and cheese. He loved cooking and he did not want Sabrina in the kitchen with him.

Larry loved the Lord and he was a born again believer in our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. He was a faithful member of the Salvation Army Church for over sixteen years. He attended church faithfully before his injury and as often as he could after that life-changing injury.

Larry Richardson was preceded in death by: both his parents, James Richardson and Thelma Irene Henry; four siblings, Charles Wilson, Darlene Richardson, Michael Tribble, and Chester Richardson; and his grandfather, Lealon Pratt.

He leaves to cherish his love and memory: his beloved wife, Sabrina Richardson; grandmother, Lucille Pratt; his three children, Tyleata Marie Richardson, Shaquille Marche, and Lashai Richardson; two brothers, Donnell Richardson and Joe Ben Richardson; two sisters, Barbara Richardson and Christine Richardson; granddaughter, TyShai

Newman; goddaughter, Candace Richardson; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and other family members and friend
