

Loretta E. Peoples

March 2, 1952 - May 8, 2019

Loretta Elizabeth, daughter of Jessie Peoples and the late Loretta Peoples entered this world on March 3, 1952. Loretta gave her life to God and in return he called her back to his kingdom on Wednesday, May 8, 2019.

Loretta graduated from Eastern High School and went on to complete the Nursing Program at BCCC, which landed her a position at Sinai Hospital as a "LPN". After which, she was employed by MTA as a bus operator for over 30 years. Even after becoming ill and retiring, she cared for the elderly. Loretta dedicated her life to helping people and never wanted recognition for it. Instead, she would always say "May the work I've done speak for me."

Loretta was very family oriented. She wed the late Ronald Newsome. She had one son, Darrell E. Green Sr., who proceeded her in death. Her strength was unmatched. She stepped up and fulfilled Darrell's fatherly duties making sure his children would never feel the emptiness of losing him. Loretta shared a very special relationship with her great-granddaughter, McKenzie. It's hard to say which title, "Mom" "Grandmother" or "Great Grandmother" brought her the most joy.

Blessedly her life wasn't all work. She created countless memories laughing, dancing and shopping with her siblings and friends. Her favorite pastimes included visiting different casinos and playing bingo.

Loretta leaves to cherish her legacy: father, Jessie Peoples; the late Loretta Peoples; one son proceeded her in death, Darrell E. Green.; four grandchildren, Darrell Jr, Keyonia, Terrell and Davon Green; eight great grandchildren, Darrell III, McKenzie, Akil, Harley, Kali, Khamryn, Ja'Khai and Rhylei; ten brothers, seven sister and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

“ Your brothers and sisters and dad purchased the Strength & Solace Spray for the family of Loretta E. Peoples.

Your brothers and sisters and dad - May 14 at 12:24 PM

“ I am going to miss you so much. Although it's hurts, I'm happy there's no more pain and your now at peace. It hurt me so much to see you knowing there was so much pain and there was nothing I could do, but Love you. I am always going to Love you and miss you. You were always there to help me through my problems and God knows there were many. I knew you would only speak the truth. Your famous word were" I'm going to speak the truth even if you don't like it" You opens your doors as well as your heart to so many including me and my girls when we needed a place to stay and I Thank you. You're are a very special, caring, love giving person and I'm proud you're my sister.

“ Rest in eternal paradise Loretta...no more pain. You truly fought the fight but God saw it was beginning to be too much. I'll remember your laughter and every time we'd see each other, you saying to me "Hey brother-in-law!" Until we meet again, take your rightful place around God's throne.

“ Prayers and sympathy to the entire family of Loretta. I personally did not know you, but your sister Theresa is a good friend of mine and she has shared with me over these past few months bits and pieces about you and your family. You have a very close family and their combined strength and the ability to lean upon each other will see them through this tough time. You were an inspiration to them and you leave a great legacy behind. God Speed to you Loretta, you've earned your wings. Sincerely, Donna Bethke
