

Margaret Green

June 16, 1933 - May 28, 2019

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day-and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.
(2 Tim 4:7-8)

MARGARET GREEN was born on June 13, 1933, in Timmonsville, a small town in Florence County, South Carolina. She was the daughter of the late Dave and Josie Samuel. She departed this life on May 28, 2019, after a lengthy illness.

She was educated in the Timmonsville, South Carolina public school system. On September 19, 1952, she was united in holy matrimony to the love of her life, the late William Green. They later moved to Baltimore, Maryland where they started their family. From their union five children were born.

Margaret, affectionately known as Margie or Boob, was a loving and devoted mother, sister, cousin, grandmother and friend. As a housewife and mother, she devoted her life to taking care of her family. Her purpose was wrapped up in each of her children. She always wanted the best for them and worked to instill strong values and a love for the Lord. She modeled these values in the way she treated others, sometimes even opening her home to those in need.

Margaret loved Gospel music, and her favorite time of the year was Christmas. She loved to dance, cook, and sit on her front porch with friends and family. She wasn't impressed easily, but when she was you would hear one of her favorite sayings-"Go 'head!" Margaret was a prim and proper lady, rarely leaving the house without her hair done and signature red lip, but she didn't shy away from speaking her mind. Every now and then, a "What the &%@#?" would slip from her lips.

She leaves to cherish her memory: daughter, Linda; four sons, Roger, Michael, Willie, and Raymond; daughter-in-law, Diane; two sons-in-law, Joe Brown and J'son; brother, Reverend A. Samuel; two sisters, Carolyn and Bessie; sister-in-law, Ruthie Samuel; twelve grandchildren, twenty-one great-grandchildren, and a host of relatives and friends.

Cemetery

King Park

8710 Dogwood Road
Baltimore, MD, 21244

Events

JUN Wake 11:30AM - 12:00PM

5

March Funeral Homes - West Baltimore
4300 Wabash Avenue, Baltimore, MD, US, 21215

JUN Service 12:00PM

5

March Funeral Homes - West Baltimore
4300 Wabash Avenue, Baltimore, MD, US, 21215

Comments

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.

March Funeral Homes - June 03, 2019 at 08:38 AM

“ Grandma I'm going to miss joking with you. No matter what the situation was, I could always count on making you laugh and smile. I'm truly going to miss you. Eventhough you're gone, I know that you will always be in my heart! I love you Grandma your crazy grandson Roger Green.

Roger Green - June 03, 2019 at 08:15 PM

“ To my dearest friend Roger
I never met your grandmother however you talked about her often over the years. How she would light up into your daddy when he pissed her off. Or giving you order about going to the Market for her. Well just know that she'll always be with you in spirit!! RIP Mrs Margaret Green.

April Ross - June 04, 2019 at 09:01 AM