August 27, 1926 - September 4, 2019

Legacy of Life

Mary Comer a long time resident of the Richmond area passed away on Wednesday, September 4, 2019 in her home surrounded by her loved ones. She was the eldest of five children, born August 27, 1926. Mary is preceded in death by her two sons, Irving Comer and Robert Comer.

She worked for Trailways, Woolworth's and the Richmond Public Schools.

Mary was a remarkable woman whose presence has blessed this family with her loving spirit and forgiving heart. She fought the good fight and we were honored to have walked this amazing journey with her. Her strength, courage and love has carried us throughout many trials and tribulations.

Her selfless spirit of being a wonderful mother, provider, grand-mother, and love for family and friends was demonstrated daily. She had a personality that was true, along with her glorious smile that was certain to brighten up your day.

She is survived by her five children, Cynthia Turnage (Milton), Jerome Comer, Robin White (David), Deborah Comer and Tammy Middleton (Cecil); her devoted grandchildren, Leslie and Olivia; several other grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and cousins; devoted friends, Constance Williams and Adele Muhammad; and a host of other relatives and caring friends.

To have touched so many lives bears testament to the fact that her purpose was divine.

Our tears are tears of joy.

We honor you mother and we love you.
