

Mary Manigault

March 9, 1932 - July 16, 2020

On Thursday, July 16, 2020, the Lord called Mary E. Manigault into his kingdom to rest peacefully in His arms for eternity.

Mary was born on March 9, 1932 to the late Daisy Vell and Alex Williams in Hopewell, Virginia. At a very early age her family moved to Sanford, North Carolina. Mary began her education in North Carolina Public Schools. As a member of New Hope Baptist Church, Mary received Christ at an early age. There she served as an usher, choir member and secretary. She came to Baltimore as a teenager and continued her education with Baltimore City Public Schools. It was in Mosher and Freemont Avenue neighborhood that she met her future husband and soul mate, Jessie Manigault. From this union five children were born; Tyrone, Vellette, Ethel, Jesse and Avon. At that time, she became affectionately known as Mommy!

Sunday dinner was our favorite time when family would gather to enjoy Mommy's homemade rolls, cakes, candied yams and all the fixings. Holidays were all about the family and the home cooked meals.

After all five children were born Mommy entered into the work force and retired from Manor Care Nursing Home. She wanted to ensure that her children had everything they needed.

Mommy had a deep love for her family. She maintained an inseparable bond with her only brother, Alexander Williams, who preceded her in death. Her love for family was instilled into the lives of her children and evident by the thoughtful things she did for them until she was no longer able. All of her children were her favorite. She is the heartbeat of each child. She had an infectious smile, was soft spoken but firm in her beliefs. Mommy's prayers were answered when she asked God to allow her to see her children grow to adults. God's favor was over her life.

In 2000 when Daddy entered into God's kingdom, the family circle grew tighter. Family trips became the norm. San Francisco was a favorite destination. Mommy enjoyed the beach, watching the waves and the ships moving about. Many precious memories were made throughout the years.

In June, Mommy entered into home hospice care under the guidance of the "warden", her daughter Vellette, who taught everyone how to care for Mommy. Thank you sister for being a faithful leader. Mommy always said you knew how to take care of her.

Mommy said "Jesus is taking over" we knew the earthly road was coming to an end. She said she would always be with us. Mommy entered into the gates of Heaven in the comfort of her home with her children by her bedside. God has spoken.

Left to cherish precious memories are: her adored children; Tyrone, Vellette, Ethel, Jesse and Avon: son-in-law, Charles Toulson, daughter-in-law, Tawanda Manigault: five grandchildren; Michelle, Wayne, Devin, Andra and Breyonna; six great-grand children; kayla, Brenden, Zyiona, Mya, Jeremiah and Keizer: two sister-in-laws; Sara Reed and Carrie Williams: one brother-in-law; Kirkley Manigault: nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
