“ Some of the funniest moments I've had with my honey were when we'd be leaving the house and he couldn't find his glasses, his work ID or his keys. His glasses were usually on his head or hanging on the collar of his shirt. Matt's work ID was normally on his lanyard which was hung around his neck and his keys would either be sitting on the table in front of his face or right in his pocket. Another thing that would make me laugh is his reaction to whatever's happening in the football or baseball game. He would suddenly scream and throw the remote across the room. I'd say "Don't get mad at the remote. The remote didn't do it!" I will miss all of the wonderful times we shared.

“ You were always so thoughtful and cool to just sit and talk to when at work. It's funny that I didn't know how close we lived to each other, until one evening when I had a flat tire and you just happened to drive by and stopped to see if i needed any assistance. I'm going to miss those conversations with you Brother!

Sincerely,

Terence Dobbins

“ We grew up in the same neighborhood and spent and spent a lot of time together as children. I am glad we were able to reconnect as adults a few years ago. RIP.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. My deepest condolences to the Early family. I met Matthew at WRNMMC we worked together for a short time. He would always come around my desk to joke around or just check if I'm having a good day. I will never forget the many conversations & stories we shared about our children's accomplishments or not so good times. Matt was a true gentleman, a great friend and an exceptional father!

I will miss you dearly! =(

"Fairness doesn't govern life and death. If it did, no good person would ever die young."

"Those we loved don't go away, they walk beside us everyday. Unseen, unheard, but always near, still loved, still missed and very dear."

“ I knew Matthew from work and bumping into Matthew at the Giant Food store in Burtonsville, MD every now and then as I'm gonna miss those moments. Also, Matt and I were big baseball fans, thou, I'm a Chicago Cubs fan first, the NY Yankees are my 2nd favorite team and that was Matt's baseball team as we would talk about the Yankees from time to time as well as my Cubbies....
I'm very sorry for your lost as words cannot express what U are going through as a family as here's a little poem to help....

At the rising sun and at its going down; We remember them.
At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter; We remember them.
At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring; We remember them.
At the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of summer; We remember them.
At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of the autumn; We remember them.
At the beginning of the year and when it ends; We remember them.
As long as we live, they too will live, for they are now a part of us as We remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength; We remember them.
When we are lost and sick at heart; We remember them.
When we have decisions that are difficult to make; We remember them.
When we have joy we crave to share; We remember them.
When we have achievements that are based on theirs; We remember them.
For as long as we live, they too will live, for they are now a part of us as, We remember them.
