

Myra Bonita Baker

June 29, 1964 - December 24, 2020

On June 29, 1964, Myra Baker was born in Goldsboro, North Carolina at Wayne Memorial Hospital to the late LD and Mary Baker. At an early age, her parents relocated to Richmond, Virginia, where she attended Armstrong-Kennedy High School. After graduation, Myra entered the food service industry. She was a dedicated employee of Lakewood Manor Assisted Living where she served as the head chef for over 20 years, when she retired due to illness.

Myra's culinary skills were more than a job, it was a passion. She enjoyed catering events/parties, creating new dishes and cooking for the family. If there was an event she did not hesitate to step up and take charge of the kitchen. In the early 90's she met the father of her children, Allen Odom and together they had two beautiful children. In the early 2000's she met her long-term boyfriend turned husband, Calvin Jackson, whom she married on June 14, 2014. Myra was a longtime member of Agape Deliverance COGIC under the leadership of the late Pastor Melvin Rouse, Sr. and Pastor Shirley Rouse. She later became a member of 7th Street Memorial Baptist Church under Pastor Micah and CC Jackson.

During her illness, Myra never complained, instead she remained strong in prayer. Not only was Myra a loving mother to her kids, but she expressed that love to anyone that was in her presence. One of her famous sayings was "you seen one baby, you seen them all", but that did not stop her from loving the babies.

Thursday evening, December 24, 2020 at 5:25 p.m. our beloved Myra took her flight from earth to Glory. Her memory is celebrated by her loving husband Calvin Jackson, a devoted mother-in-law, Thelma Jackson; two sons, Jonathan Baker and Omar Jackson, one daughter, Shantelle Baker, one fur baby, Benji, two sisters, Jackie Russell (John), Theresa Baker-Lewis (Keith), three brothers, Doneal Brewington, Orlando Baker (Ebony), and Lorenzo Trent, one uncle, JD Baker, three aunts, Jarelle Brinson, Helen King and Rebecca Flournoy, one goddaughter, Amyrah, 8 nieces and nephews, Natasha, Antwon, Donneshia, Quieana, Dejaquan, Desirea and Jasmine; devoted cousins, Phyllis Ann and Shawnphyll; a host of nephews, nieces other relatives and friends.

She will be greatly missed by all!!
