

Nannette M Gray

November 17, 1970 - June 24, 2021

NANNETTE MONA' GRAY, the only child of Ruth Ann Gray and the late Benjamin Patterson, Sr., was born on November 17, 1970. On June 24, 2021, at Johns Hopkins Hospital in the presence of her fiancé James Young, her mother, children and aunts, she transitioned from her earthly life to eternal life.

Bubby, as she affectionately called, attended First Baptist Church of Cherry Hill to witness the baptism and participation of her children in Sunday School and annual programs.

Bubby received her early education in the Baltimore City Public School System attending PS #164 and Hamilton Elementary/Middle School. She graduated from Carver Vocational-Technical High School as a "Carver Bear."

Bubby was employed by numerous retail businesses in the Baltimore Metropolitan area where she met lots of people and maintained close relationships.

The love of her life, in addition to her children, was James Young who she loved dearly; and they raised their family together for twenty-three years. She made sure the family attended cookouts, parties and any family gatherings, no matter how late she was and she had to take a plate to go. Buddy enjoyed family reunions, being the center of attention telling stories about herself/her children, relatives and friends.

Buddy leaves to cherish a lifetime of memories: her loving and devoted fiancé and BFF, James Young; daughters, Tah'Naesha Gray, Marshea Gross, Saschet Gray, and Skye Gray; sons, Gage Gross, Jordeae Young, and Chance Gray; sister, Yolonda Jones; brother, Benjamin Patterson Jr.; grandchildren, Tah'Shay Gray, Thomas Johnson, Tranell Miller, and Noah Gray; mother-in-law-to-be, Deloris Menefee; a host of aunts, cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

Bubby was preceded in death by her daughter Saisha Gross and her father Benjamin Patterson Sr.
