

Oluwakemi Oluwayemisi Akinola

October 1, 1948 - October 7, 2019

Sister Kemi “Aunti mi” your exit to us is too sudden, too soon and very painful to bear but we take solace in our Lord God Almighty and in Jesus Christ who gave you to our parents the family of Pa Chief Albert Sorinwa and has now called you home because HE LOVES YOU MOST.

Precisely on Wednesday 2nd October 2019, you left your place of abode and came visiting us all your siblings one by one; you said you came to check on our wellbeing. Little did we know that you were bidding us all your secret and solemn farewell, and was about to join the saints.

Alas!!!, “Iya Owo”, you did not make it as planned home here on earth, but surely you made it home to heaven. You’ve been with us since our childhood days and we know how much you loved and cared for the family and much more your dear children. Though we have our differences and you often scold us, you quickly find a way to make up, carrying all of us along in every family matters exhibiting your strength and maturity.

We have lost a gem, we have lost our dearest sister physically, but we know the kingdom of the saints have gained a soul. Sleep on, Sleep on our dear sister. Eternal rest grant to her, O Lord; and let light perpetual shine upon her. Amen.

Mr. Olushola Sorinwa On Behalf of the Sorinwa Siblings If we could have you back for just a while, dearest Oluwa Kemi then we could sit and talk again just like we used to do. You mean so much to us, and we will forever love you. You would always preach to us to help those who are in need and not to hate people. The fact that you are no longer with us causes us pain, and you are forever in our hearts until we met again. Love you Mommy.

Oluwa Kemi leaves to cherish her memory her loving and devoted children, Bukola Almarroof (Liadi Apatira), OluwaToyin, Owolabi, Abosedo, Ololade, OluwaBukola, Abimbola, Olalaide, and Olatunji; grandchildren, Aramide, Adetutu, Ayomide, Aderonke, Busola, Zainab, Adegbeoyega, Dolapo, Omolade, Folakunmi, Oluwatomisin, Emiranti, Jibola, Adebola, Amtullah, Diamond, Amima, Destiny; and a host of other relatives and friends.
