

Pamela Ann Hendricks

September 8, 1951 - March 23, 2021

A Time to be Born

Pamela Ann Davis made her glorious entrance into the world on September 8, 1951. She was born in Baltimore, Maryland to the late James and Annie Davis. She was the second child of four children and their only little girl. Having lost her father at the tender age of 9 (on her birthday) her mother later met and married the late Fred Stephens, a loving father to Pam and her siblings.

A Time to Learn

She received her education in the Baltimore City Public Schools System, where she graduated from Northwestern High School in 1969. She later attended Costal Carolina College in Jacksonville, North Carolina.

A Time to Love

It all began in the 10th grade at Northwestern High School where Pam met the love of her life, George L. Hendricks Sr. Fast forward, they wed on January 6, 1971, becoming a proud military wife, which she absolutely loved. From this union, there were three children, whom they reared exemplifying the importance of family, loving and serving God. Affectionately known as Ms. Pam, she was a committed wife, devoted mother (to her biological children as well as those she adopted and reared) daughter, sister aunt cousin and friend. She deeply loved all who were fortunate to be a part of the family circle. They opened their home and hearts to many. Believing there was always room for one more, countless young people found tough but tender love, comfort and refuge under their care. Pam believed family was everything and within the family circle, you could find the skills, talents and forte to get anything done.

A Time to Build

Pam was a life learner. She was always looking to grow while helping others along the way. To this end, she discovered a myriad of opportunities that continued to propel her to new experiences and lasting impressions on many lives. One of her first interest was hair care and fashion, learning much while working in a wig shop. Eager to perfect her craft, she became a licensed cosmetologist and eventually opened her own hair salon. Being a fashionista, another career was working in retail at the Merry-Go-Round. However, she soon decided she liked the business aspect of the retail; hence became a licensed H&R Block Tax Professional preparing taxes both professionally and personally for years. Equipped with more knowledge she forged ahead to become a Finance Officer for Atena Finance managed by her brother Robbie. Keeping her ambitions moving, she changed gears completely when she became assistant manager leading to the Property Manager for Hillcrest Apartments. In pursuit of her next endeavor, she stepped in the real estate world and received a Realtor's license. Recognized for her acumen in this field she was hired by Otis Warren to work as a Realtor and Property Manager, which led to what seemed to be her life-long knitch. Clearly this was where she excelled so she left to take on another challenge, managing properties at Ashburton Woods for twenty-seven years. Over the years, she has provided housing for countless members in the family circle. This was not the end of her work journey. In her zeal to continue to use her creative skills, she partnered with Mano Swartz to establish Family Furs. Continuing in her entrepreneurial spirit, Homeowners Maintenance Experts (HME) business was established in 2006. However, what she enjoyed most was becoming certified in Child Care and Foster Care, which gave her the tools to produce her notorious Aunt Pam's Fun CAMP in 2008. As reported by WJZ TV: "Summer fun with a purpose. One woman's drive to care for kids in her family has grown into a summer mission, from two kids to eighteen plus." It goes without saying because we can all attest to being included in some way or another in her fruitful endeavors, she wanted to always keep family close so she took family along for the ride. We were blessed to have reaped the rewards and benefits of her labor.

A Time to Laugh

Pam wanted to live life to the fullest and she did just that, bringing joy and fun to all who went along for the ride. Growing up she was an avid bowler and skater. Of course, equipped with her own personalized gear to make sure she could perform at her very best. She was an eclectic music lover and she often liked to dance. At one point she traveled and danced with the renown Travis Winky Dance Company. When she began to set her sights on traveling, nothing was off limits. Mom was big on filling our lives with amazing experiences, not just material things although we always had the best of everything. Some of our friends had never traveled downtown, moreover out of the country. Our mom took them along this adventurous journey, from school shopping in Pennsylvania, New York and New Jersey; girl trips to Paris, California, Las Vegas and EVERY Caribbean Island; attending Soul Train and BET Awards, NBA All-Stars and the Million Family March, just to highlight a few. No experience was out of reach for us because we did it all. Ma-ma, affectionally called by her grandchildren, enjoyed and were mesmerized by her story telling. This was her way of enlightening and educating them.

Each time she added another chapter to her story, she was able to explore her passions and love for life.

A Time for Peace

During Pam's precious time with us here on earth, she began her walk with Christ as a child, under the teachings of Church of God. She enjoyed going to church and participated in the Children's Choir and other activities. As a young adult, she followed mother-in love, Mother Georgie Redd to First Apostolic Faith Church in Baltimore Maryland, where she joined in the early 1980's. She remained a member until she departed this life after a lengthy battle with cancer when she entered into eternal rest to join her mother, Annie D. Stephen; father, James Davis; stepfather, Fred L. Stephen; brothers Joseph P. Davis and Donald F. Davis and a host of other relatives and friends that preceded her in death.

A Time to Cherish

She leaves to reflect and cherish her memory, her devoted husband: George L. Hendricks, Sr.; (3) children, George L. Hendricks, Jr. (Elizabeth), Bruce Hendricks, Tyrica Hendricks Duckett (Robert); Brother: Robin J. Davis (LaTisha);(8)Sister-in-laws: Michelle Davis, Shirley Rawson, Jacquelin Middleton, Yolanda Hendricks Brown, Robin Hendricks, Adrienne Hendricks, Pandora Hendricks, Deborah Hendricks; (4) Brother-in-laws: Maurice E. Middleton, Sr., Kevin Flanagan (Robin), Rodney Hendricks, Whitney Hendricks; (10) Grandchildren: TaRae Cobb (Derrick), Mawda Hendricks Devin Hendricks, Jordan Hendricks, Tanikqua Fields, Unique Hendricks, Carter Hendricks, Peyton Hendricks, Amyah Hendricks, Nas Hendricks; (6)great-grandchildren: Bria, Morgan , Autumn, Dominik, Taniahya, Tyleah; (1)great-great grandson, Novaj; Mother-in-love: Mother Georgie E Redd, from whom she sought and received matriarchal wisdom, comfort and love; an abundance of adopted children, god children, god brothers, god sisters, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and extended family and friends, too numerous to individually name, all who held a special place in her heart. Mom would often say "Blood does not define those in the family, LOVE does! We are all FAMILY!"

“ I'm so saddened to hear of your departure. I met Ms. Pam many years ago when I dated Paul and he introduced me to her as his Godmother. She always had a kind spirit and a loving heart. She took to me and my children especially my daughter Sateia.. May God Bless you and your family at this time of sorrow. Love Tracy

“ I will always cherish Aunt Pam's tough love. She would speak her mind "matter-of-factly", get you straight, and still love you after she was done. We need more firm mother figures like her in this world. She was a gem and forever will be missed.
