

Richmond McWilliams

March 3, 1946 - April 15, 2021

Richmond McWilliams, son of the late Sterling and Cora Hunter McWilliams was born on March 3, 1946, in Halifax County, Enfield, North Carolina. He was the youngest boy out of twelve brothers and sisters, eight preceded him in death. He peacefully departed this life on April 12, 2021.

Richmond was educated in Halifax County public schools in Enfield, North Carolina.

Richmond known as “Boot” is what his loved ones favorably called him. He excepted Jesus Christ as his savior.

Richmond was employed at Chrysler dealership where he retired. He loved working on cars, he would work on them day and night until he got it right, like he did everything he was a perfectionist.

Richmond loved watching sports and old western movies. He was a great cook. He could cook almost anything, he was very clean and neat. He was very helpful anytime he accompanies you especially the ladies. He wouldn't let you lift a finger, he was very energetic and he moved around like a young man in his twenties (smiling).

Richmond also enjoyed himself a good Cuba cigar, you hardly ever seen him without one. He was a very laid-back, humble, and intelligent man.

He met and married the late Shirley McWilliams who preceded him in death. From this union came his two daughters, Debbie McFadden and Darlene McWilliam, and son, Jasper McWilliams whom he loved dearly. Boot loved his family and they loved him.

Richmond leaves to mourn his death: his two daughters, Debbie McFadden and Darlene McWilliams; his son, Jasper McWilliams; his son-in-law, Tyrone McFadden-Bey; four stepdaughters, Veronica Stackhouse, Danielle, Charmaine, and Carla; fifteen grandchildren, 37 great-grandchildren; three sisters, Elsie Jones, Lettie Bryant, and Virginia Lynch; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives, and friends.

Cemetery

Events

Private

APR
29

Memorial Service

02:30PM

Baltimore, MD,

March Funeral Home - East

1101 E. North Avenue, Baltimore, MD, US, 21202

Comments

“ To View the Webcast of the Funeral for Richmond McWilliams, Please Click the Link below.

March Funeral Homes - April 29, 2021 at 09:45 AM

“ My sincere condolences to the Mcwilliams family, wishing you comfort aength as you go through this day celebrating the life and the are not alone we stand with you in Jesus mighty name, may his comfort hold you close to his bosom covering you with his abundance of love and understanding as he takes every step with you. The Lord will take delight in you with gladness. With his love, he will calm all of your fears. He will rejoice over you with joyful songs. ZEPHANIAH 3:17 "I Love You All From The Bottom of My Heart." Sister Gwenette, The Williams Family

Gwenette - April 29, 2021 at 10:55 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.

March Funeral Homes - April 28, 2021 at 02:48 PM